Fumbling Ag Fish Salvage 7-6 Victory Over Kittens

By BARRY HART
Battalion Sports Writer

Still undefeated, but lacking the scoring punch that beat TCU and Baylor, the fumbling Aggie Fish salvaged a listless 7-6 victory over the University of Houston Kittens Thursday night on Kyle Field.

Outplayed by the faster Kittens, the Fish lost the ball six times on fumbles and saw three drives dwindle inside the Houston 25.

A&M's few bright spots included the fine play turned in by fullback John Tracey and halfbacks Joe Pasuczzi and Luther Hall.

Tracey played a terrific defensive game from his linebacker position and one of his two fumble recoveries set up the Fish touchdown. After fumbling on his first run from scrimmage, Tracey picked up 30 yards in the second half and smashed over for the score.

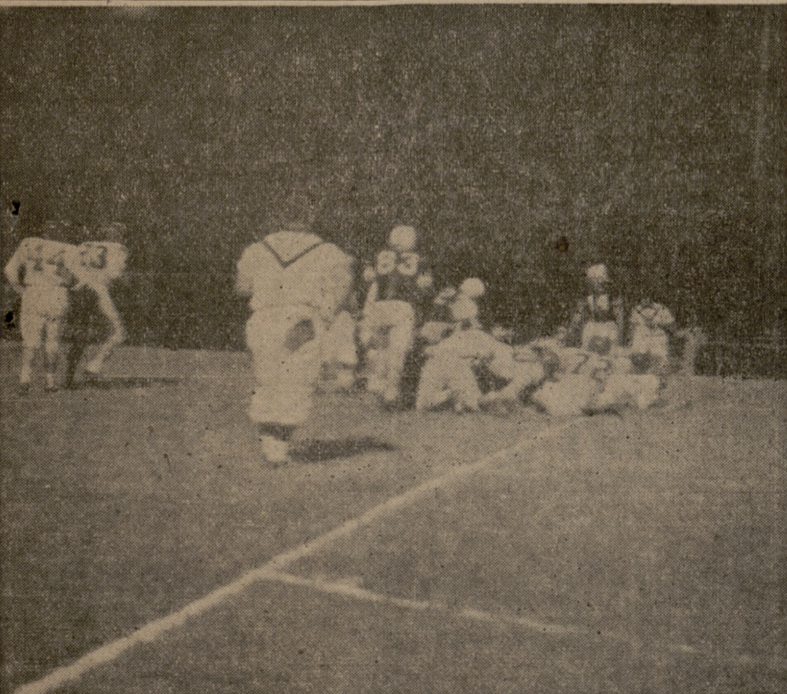

Pasuczzi was again the leading A&M ball carrier with 47 yards on 12 runs. His fifth extra point out of six attempts was the margin of difference.

Hall, running from left halfback, gained 34 yards on 14 tries, intercepted a Houston pass and broke up what appeared to be a completed Kitten pass on the Aggie four in the last minute of play.

A&M drove to the Houston 21 midway in the opening quarter, but Pasuczzi lost five on an attempted pitch-out and Jackie Hathorn's pass bounced out of end Don Usry's hands on fourth down.

LOOSE BALL—Scrambling for a loose ball on the Aggie one-yard line are players from the freshmen teams of A&M and the University of Houston. The ball was recovered by Fish center Stanley Roper, after being fumbled by Kitten quarterback Joseph Fatula. The Kittens had driven down to the Fish goal-line in the last two minutes of the first half when the timely fumble occurred. A&M won 7-6.

Two Aggie drives fell short of paydirt in the second period, with the Fish losing the ball twice on fumbles.

After Hall intercepted Joe Fatula's pass, A&M drove 39 yards in 8 plays to the Houston 15 where Hall fumbled Hathorn's pitchout and center Harold Davis recovered for the Kittens on the 23.

With fourth down and 11 yards to go Davis punted 41 yards to Hall who returned it to the line of scrimmage and the first-year Aggies set up shop on the 22.

Pasuczzi hit the middle for one, but an attempted Hall-to-Pasuczzi pitchout lost nine and two pass at-

Students To Help Dedicate Aggie Land

For the first time in the history of A&M, the student body will participate in choosing the theme and dedication for the Aggie Land.

Beginning Monday and lasting a week, a box will be placed in the hall of the Student Center next to the Post Office entrance for students to place their ideas.

In explaining the new idea, editor Kurt Nauck said that "since the Aggie Land is the school's book, we want to give the entire student body a chance to participate."

Nauck said the dedication should be to some cause, person or organization that has a lot of meaning to the school. He said that the theme will be carried throughout the entire book. The Aggie Land staff will be the final voice in the choice of the dedication and theme.

tempts fell incomplete to stifle the drive.

Houston took the second half kickoff and drove to the Aggie 37 where, with fourth and 11, Fish left tackle Jerry Cramer blocked Davis' punt and the Aggies took over on the Kitten 44. Two plays lost two yards and after Hall's pass missed end Terry Boozer, Hathorn punted over the goal.

The Kittens worked the ball out to their 35, where Cramer again blocked Davis' punt and Don Usry covered for A&M on the Houston 12. Tracey, Hall and Hathorn worked the ball to the three, but Pasuczzi was stopped for no gain and Houston took over.

On the next play Wayne Hollister fumbled and big Tracey recovered on the six. Tracey hit right tackle twice for the touchdown with 1:10 left in the third quarter and Pasuczzi's perfect placement made the score, 7-0.

Houston scored midway in the fourth period after Hathorn's almost-blocked punt went out of bounds on the Fish 43. With a third and three on the 27, Billy Koons cut inside right end and went all the way.

GENEVA—Russia, with a foot already in the Middle Eastern door, was reported ready last night with a new diplomatic maneuver to expand her influence in the region. Western diplomats said they expect the Soviets to offer to join with the West in organizing a new collective security alliance which would bind all the states of the Middle East to act against aggression.

AUSTIN—Gov. Shivers plans a nationwide tour to line up support for the sort of "moderate" presidential candidate he thinks the Democrats need to win in 1956. Announcing the tour yesterday, he named Govs. Frank Lausche of Ohio and Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey as such middle-of-the-road possibilities but quickly emphasized he was not backing any candidate "by name."

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina—Faced with the threat of a nationwide general strike, Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi reportedly prepared yesterday to take temporary charge of the big General Confederation of Labor CGT. STOCKHOLM—The 1955 Nobel prize for literature went today to Halldor Kiljan Laxness, a left-leaning novelist from Iceland. He is little known in the United States, though he used to live there and one of his books was a best seller there in 1946. Laxness describes himself as one "who loves the Russians but practices a lot of the American way of life."

Community Center Plans Expansion

(Ed. note: This is the third in a series of articles on the agencies which will benefit from your contribution to the A&M College - College Station Community Chest - Red Cross drive which starts Monday, and continues until Nov. 12.)

Founded last year on funds budgeted by the Community Chest, the College Station Community Center Inc. has since provided invaluable service to the city through the day nursery and kindergarten for Negro children.

"If funds can be made available, it is planned to expand the program to include a well-baby clinic and classes in child care," said the Rev. Robert L. Darwall, member of the Center's Board of Directors.

Last year, for $1.50 per week, parents could leave their children at the nursery from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each week day. A trained teacher was secured and equipment donated for the first year of operation in the Washington Chapel on Highway 6.

W. A. Tarrow, principal of the Lincoln Schools said that as a result of the nursery, attendance was up more than 20 percent in the higher grades.

"Prior to this, some of the students were staying home during the day to care for younger brothers and sisters," Tarrow said.

The planning board decided to grant the Center $1,000 of the $12,100 goal, $161 more than the amount requested, for repairs, salaries, upkeep, and the proposed expansion.

(This series will continue Tuesday with a summary of the Brazos County Youth Counseling Service activities.)

Rev To Go To Arkansas Hog Killing

Reveille will make the trip to Arkansas, via railway, due to generosity of students.

'Fun and Frolic'

Consolidated Band Carnival To Be Held Tomorrow

There will be "Fun and Frolic" for all Saturday night at this year's A&M Consolidated High School Band Carnival, according to Dr. Luther Jones, president of the Band Boosters Club.

Everyone is invited to attend the affair which is termed as "a project from which the entire community will benefit" by its co-chairmen, Mrs. J. B. Baty and Mrs. J. H. Quisenberry.

The carnival, an annual affair, begins at 6 p.m. and is sponsored by the Band Boosters Club and proceeds will go to defray expenses for the cost of uniforms and equipment of the Consolidated High Tiger Band.

The program for the occasion includes caricature drawings, a comic "Chalk Talk", magical feats and wonders, a puppet show, games for the youngsters, a photography booth, "Country Store" and a spook walk.

Also on hand will be a large assortment of foods prepared by mothers in College Station.

A big attraction at this year's performance will be two professional artists, Mrs. J. Paul Savage and Mrs. David R. Cardwell, who will draw caricatures which, according to them "might not be masterpieces of art, but will portray the subject as others see them, in comic fashion."

Mrs. Savage is a fashion illustrator by profession and is a graduate of Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. She is employed in the art department of the Agricultural Extension Service.

Mrs. Cardwell, an Agriculture Promotional Illustrator, was graduated from Southwestern University, Georgetown, and is also employed by the art department of the Agricultural Extension Service.

The "Chalk Talk" will be presented by Thomas Bishop, art director of the Agricultural Extension Service. He will change pictures of animals into humans or vice-versa with a few strokes of the chalk.

Another feature of the evening will be Dean Duncan, junior at A&M and a winner at the Intercollegiate Talent Show. His feats in the realm of magic are designed to make you gasp.

Miss Doris Jones from Waco will have her famous Puppet Show on the midway. This presentation has enjoyed large audiences and acclaim over this section of the state.

Games for the younger set will be under the direction of the Lions and Kiwanis Clubs. Official Photographer for the carnival will be Dr. Charles LaMotte of the Biology Department.

A "County Store" will be operated by Mrs. Stanley Avera, Mrs. J. Skrivaneck and Mrs. Walter Varvel.

Homemade pies, cakes, chili dogs, chiliburger, popcorn, cold drinks and coffee will be available all evening and will be under the supervision of Mr. K. R. Bailey.

OLD TIMER—Dr. Charles LaMotte of the Biology Department is dressed here as he will appear in his "old time" photographers booth at Consolidated High School's Band Carnival tomorrow night.
