

Elections Fill 4 Senate Vacancies

Four vacancies in the Student Senate were filled in elections held yesterday in the Memorial Student Center and in three civilian dormitories.

For the Class of '56 senator, John D. Cunningham Jr. was the winner with 25 votes out of a total vote of 113. His closest rivals were Samuel Curtis, 21, Jennings Bunn, 13, and William P. Nourie, 10, in the "no-runoff" election.

The new Bizzell Hall senator is Stanley H. Rosenthal, who received 20 votes out of 28 cast. Four write-in candidates received the other votes.

From Hart Hall came a total vote of 44, with Richard P. Crawford winning with 28 votes. Wynne M. Snoots was the closest unsuccessful candidate with 11 votes.

Ronald C. Francis will represent Dorm 16, winning the 46-vote election with 38 votes. Eutiquio Martinez had four write-in votes.

Another senior class senator will be elected later this month at the same time that the freshmen Election Commission members are elected, said Brad Crockett, chairman of the Commission. Crockett was elected chairman at a meeting this week. Other officers are Glenn Buell, vice-chairman and Dick Bernard, secretary.

Burchard Receives Journalism Award

Donald D. Burchard, head of the Journalism department, recently received an award honoring him for his service in the Texas Gulf Coast Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

The award read: "In recognition of his leadership in the conception and development during the first crucial years of the Texas Gulf Coast Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, this token is presented to Donald D. Burchard as the man most responsible for the successful existence."

FLAG RAISERS NEEDED—The small red pennant at the bottom of the flag pole will be raised from day to day as the fund raising drive for the Community Chest continues. The pole, designed by Bob Reed of the Engineering Extension Service, is located at the North Gate traffic circle.

Talent Auditioners Must Sign Up Soon

Anyone desiring to audition for the Aggie Talent Show for this year will have to sign up before Friday in the directorate office of the MSC.
