

New Loan Fund Pays Tribute To George Long

As a tribute to a man who, for over 40 years helped the students at A&M with their financial and other problems, the relatives and friends of George A. Long started a Student Loan Fund in his memory.

The George A. Long Memorial Fund was turned over to Col. E. F. Sauer, of the Student loan office, in October and at that time was around $400.

"The activating force behind the fund was Mrs. Annie Long Mitchell, a sister of Long. She was very determined to start the fund on or before her brother's birthday, Oct. 28," said Oscar S. Long, nephew of Long.

The names of donors that started the fund are Mrs. Josephine W. Long, mother of George Long; three sisters, Mrs. Annie Long Mitchell, Mrs. Lena Long Turner and Mrs. Bertie Long Norton; three nephews, Oscar S. Long '38, Lt. Ray W. Long, USAF, '51 and John W. Long.

In a letter from Oscar Long The Battalion learned that he intends to contact the members of the class of 1917, of which George A. Long was a member and class agent, and inform them of the fund.

After his graduation in 1917 Long was an assistant county agent until he started work for the college in 1926 with the business office. He worked in that capacity until 1947 when he was put in charge of Student Loans and Labor. He served in that capacity until his death last summer in Houston.

scoring catch of Wright's pass opened the gate for the Aggies against SMU last Saturday.

"Bobby Drake has improved a lot," said Coach Bryant, "He's a fine little ol' boy and gives it all he's got."

KEITH ALMOST went to Baylor and even visited their campus as a Breckenridge schoolboy, but, luckily, changed his mind and wound up at A&M.

Keith, a converted halfback who was good enough to make Lineman of the Week after his third game on the flank, looks like a good bet to become another of A&M's great wingmen.

Fish

so far this season—a spectacular 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against the Shorthorns.

A&M will counter with slippery Joe Pascuzzi, Fish leader in rushing, scoring, pass receiving and punting, the versatile Luther Hall, triple-threat halfback switched from quarterback after the TCU game, and huge John Tracey, 216-pound fullback who excels in contact from his linebacker position and has picked up 92 yards rushing.

Leighton Conducts

R. E. Leighton of the Dairy Husbandry Department will conduct a five-day short course on dairying in Denton Nov. 14-18. Al Petty, Denton county agent, is in charge of local arrangements.
