only." He said the CSC did not have that power. John Cunningham, senior Senator, said it was time for the "infancy of the CSC to mature."

No Senior Priority

Parnell, said he didn't think seniors should be given priority. "I don't think they are any better than any one else, except they have been here a little longer. I don't think the Senate is doing right in giving all the tickets to seniors; it is an injustice to all underclassmen."

One civilian said the Senate had reached a point of absurdity and were behaving like children with their bickering. He said that this was the University of Texas game, 1955, for the Class of '56.

Fred Benson, member of the Athletic Council, said that the A&M student body did not include women and that one-half of a general admission ticket has to be paid to UT for each date ticket sold. He said this year was the first time all 2,000 date tickets had been sold.

Married Couples Dance Tomorrow

Amid a flurry of red and gold leaves, candles depicting twilight and Capers Combo playing the latest hit song, "Autumn Leaves", married couples will dance from 9 to 12 p.m. tomorrow night in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center.

Sponsored by the Aggie Wives Council and the women's clubs on the campus, the dance will have the theme of the long-time-around song that Roger Williams' style made so popular—Autumn Leaves.

Intermission will feature the wives clubs in special skits. A prize will be awarded for the best skit.

Tickets of $1.50 for couples will be sold at the door. "We want to extend a cordial invitation to any faculty member and wife who might wish to attend the dance," stated Gardner Osborn, president of the Council.

The Aggie Wives Council, representing approximately 17 Wives Clubs on the campus, divided the different committees according to clubs.

Heading the advertisement and music committee are Architect Wives; Business Wives, decorations; Bridge Club, tickets; Dames Club, prize for the skit; Civil Engineering Wives Club, refreshments and Geology Wives, skit chairman.

One of the few dances a year solely for married students and their wives, the dance will be informal.

"Club representatives have been asked to turn in their tickets and money tonight to Beverley Humphries at B-2-X College View.
