

Annual Services Planned Thursday

The Union Thanksgiving Services will be held at 8 a.m. Thursday in the A&M Methodist Church.

This annual observance of Thanksgiving is sponsored by College Station Association of Religious Workers.

This year the services will be held by the host pastor, the Rev. Mr. Nolan R. Vance of A&M Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Norman Anderson, pastor of the A&M Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon topic on "It Comes From God."

The Junior Choir of the A&M Methodist Church under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Ridings, will sing for the service and present the anthem, "We Gather Together to Ask the Lord's Blessings."

Mrs. Robert B. Kamm will sing a solo with Carl Moehlman as organist.

Open to members of all the local churches, it is hoped that students and local people alike will be able to attend this service.

non-conference contest. The stingy Aggie line allowed the Cornhuskers only 114 yards on the ground and but 19 through the air.

Before a sellout crowd of 37,000, A&M dissected TCU's mighty Frogs, 19-13, to knock the nationally-ranked Hornfrogs from the unbeaten ranks. Outweighed 13 pounds per man, the Aggies ground out 351 yards through the middle of the TCU line and held the nation's then leading ground-gainer, Jim Swink, to 85 yards and one touchdown.

Eleven swift backs carried the Cadets to a 19-7 slaughter over Baylor. The mighty Aggie line held the Bears to but 34 yards on the ground, as A&M gained national recognition and moved into the number 11 spot in the Associated Press poll.

Against the Arkansas Razorbacks, the Aggies rediscovered an old Ozark nemesis and were lucky to get away with a 7-7 tie. The Razorbacks capitalized on the inefficiency of A&M and only a great goal line stand by the stout Aggie line kept Arkansas from winning.

A&M climbed into the number nine position nationally with a 13-2 win over the ponderous SMU Mustangs. Outweighed 24 pounds per man, Bryant's Seven Dwarfs outcharged the SMU forward wall and caused five Pony fumbles with their terrific defensive play.

Scoring three times within 2:09 after 56 minutes of listless play, the Aggies downed the Rice Owls, 20-12, in the greatest rally in SWC history before a packed house of 70,000 in Houston.
