Feldman Promotes Texas Art Work

D. D. Feldman, whose collection of paintings is being shown in the Memorial Student Center now, started the collection to give Texas artists a chance to display their works and at the same time allow the general public to see what Texas artists are doing.

Feldman is a native Texan from Dallas who now has extensive oil and gas operations on an international scale.

TEXAS ART—Mrs. Emilita Terry, art director for the Memorial Student Center, stands by one of her two pictures that are included in the D. D. Feldman Collection of Texas Art. The collection is now on exhibit in the Center, sponsored by the Art Group.

Contemporary Art on Exhibit

The D. D. Feldman Collection of Contemporary Texas Art is now on display in the lobby and corridor of the Memorial Student Center.

The show opened at 4 p.m. today in the MSC with a reception in honor of Feldman, owner of the collection. Hosts for the coffee are the MSC Art Group, which sponsors art exhibits at the Student Center; the Directorate and the Council.

Photographers from two national magazines are expected to attend the reception and photograph parts of the collection.

Seventy-five of the original 100 paintings are on display here. Three of them are by local artists.

A&M is the first college campus in Texas where the paintings have been shown, and it is expected that the exhibit here will be viewed by more people than at any other place on the state-wide tour.

Feldman commissioned Tom Douglas, prominent Hollywood designer and art patron, to visit Texas artists and art centers and purchase 100 paintings that would be representative of every school of art.

When the collection was assembled, it was judged at a private showing in Dallas by three impartial judges—one from Los Angeles, one from Chicago, and one from New York. Prizes of $1,500, $750, and $500 were awarded to the top three paintings.

A $50 prize will be awarded for the painting voted the most popular while at the MSC.

Filings Open Tuesday For Fish Elections

Jack Malone Wins Free Typewriter

Jack C. Malone, sophomore from Vanderbilt, is the winner of a typewriter given free by the Bryan Business Machine Company.

Malone's name was drawn out of a box by P. L. (Pinky) Downs Jr., official greeter of A&M and "long-time" Aggie. The drawing was held yesterday.

Through the Centuries...

Through cold, snow-covered fields, underneath ice-encrusted trees, the river runs its course.

This brings to mind the Christian Church. It was founded upon the teachings of Jesus who lived His life and did His work unperturbed by the coldness of many of His fellowmen and of the ruling officials. He knew that His work would stand because it was founded upon truth. It not only stood, but has flowed steadily on for centuries. It is still going on today in His churches.

If you do not attend church services why not go this coming Sunday, and identify yourself with this steady flow of the best for which life stands?

There is always room in the river for one more drop of water. There is always room in the Church for one more worshipper.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
