Crop Team Takes 8th Place

The A&M Agronomy Society's Crop Judging Team nosed out 19 other teams to take 8th place in the Intercollegiate Crop Judging Contest at Chicago last week.

The A&M team, composed of Bob Butschek from Moulton, Bill Lyles from Bryan, Paul Mohle from Lockhart and John Beatty from Comanche, alternate, won 4th place in identification, 7th in judging, and 8th in commercial grading in competition with 27 teams from over the United States and Canada.

Butschek scored 597 points out of a possible 600 to capture 7th place in individual identification in the contest. Lyles placed 17th and Mohle placed 21st.

The team left College Station in company with the team coach, R. C. Potts of the Agronomy Department, Nov. 18, and are due to return Thursday.

Junior Livestock Team Sees Ranches

The A&M Junior Livestock Judging Team visited several Texas ranches last week. Among the ranches visited on the tour were Straus-Medina Hereford Ranch, Essar Angus, Luther Burbank Student Farm in San Antonio and Schofield's Shorthorn ranch.

The tour of the midwest taken by the team on their journey to Chicago included stops at Oklahoma A&M, the Kansas City Board of Trade and their grain and hay laboratories, and the Chicago Board of Trade.

"These visits, according to Potts, enabled the students to observe market exchange procedure while the market was in full swing."

Each team member and alternate will receive a medal for his participation in the contest.

Gifts, Loans, Etc. Accepted By Board

A total of $45,956.13 in gifts, grants-in-aid, loans, scholarships, fellowships and awards, has been accepted by the Board of Directors of the A&M College System meeting at A&M last Wednesday. Texas Agricultural Experiment Station received $16,907.94 in grants-in-aid; $2,116.50 in gifts, $2,100 in loans and one charbray heifer and one 3-4 charbray heifer.

A&M College received $995 value of hydrotardo to be used in the Mechanical Engineering Department, 2,000 pounds of aluminum for the Industrial Education Department and a pair of facsimile receivers to be used by the Electrical Engineering Department.

A&M also received $18,436.40 in scholarships, fellowships and awards and $4,440 in special gifts. Tarleton State College received a $1,000 gift.

Mother's Club Clears $112 For Award

The Games Party, sponsored recently by the Brazos Co. A&M Mother's Club, went $112 over their goal of $100 for the scholarship fund.

Held each year, the money collected is awarded to a worthy Brazos Co. junior each spring toward expenses for his senior year.

Forty-five tables of canasta, bridge and dominoes were set up for the ladies participating in the games party. Approximately 35 prizes were awarded by drawings to guests. Included in the prizes, were four water color paintings by Mrs. Joe Mogford. Mrs. Mogford donates paintings for the party every year.

Other prizes awarded were pies, homemade pickles, potted plants were donated by members of the Mother's club.

Applicants for the scholarship will be received in the office of Ray Perryman, associate registrar, this spring. The applicant, who must be a junior Brazos Co. student, is chosen on character, scholarship, and worthiness.

National Speaker Set For Thursday

A talk, based on observations of a recent extended tour of South and Central America, will give College Station and Bryan residents a verbal look at the interests, activities and lives of the people of Latin America.

John Scott, assistant to the publisher of Time Magazine, will speak at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center. Admission is free, and all A&M students, staff members and the public are invited. The A&M Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi is sponsoring the program.

MSS 3 To Offer Prizes For Work

Awards will again be made this year for the best short story, the best poem and the best front cover design submitted for the MSS. 3, anthology of A&M student writing. The prizes are $5 each, editor John Kirkpatrick said.

The issue is scheduled to come out some time in March next year. Good serious writing of all kinds will be considered: feature articles, satire, light verse, poetry, fiction. Also this year, photography, drawings and oil paintings will be considered for reproduction in the MSS. 3.

Entries should be submitted by Jan. 1, and should be type-written.

CHS Cagers Open Season Against Bobcats Tonight

A&M Consolidated will open its basketball season tonight at Tiger Gym with Cypress-Fairbanks' Bobcats. Two games will be played; the B team at 7 and the A team at 8.

Coach Larry Hayes, in his first year as basketball mentor, has 22 men out for the team. Only two lettermen, both of whom were all-district last year, are back—Manuel Garcia and Norman Floeck.

Starters for the Tiger A team tonight will be some combination of five out of the following six men: Floeck, Garcia, Dick Hickeman, Jon Ray Terryman, Bobby Potts and Bill Hall. Other members of the squad are Maurice Olian, Bill Dorrington, Bill Kavanaugh and Bill Breazeale.

On the B team are Bradley Blanton, John Caywood, Charles Gentry, Jerry Holland, Kirby Jackson, Jerry Mills, Gerry Morris, Lynn Morris, Jimmy Murphey, Joe Randolph and John Turner.

Cypress-Fairbanks beat the Tigers in the final game last year to win the district championship. The Tigers took second in district play.

Other games on the Tiger schedule are Somerville here Dec. 2, A Team; Bellville here, Dec. 5, A; Bryan tournament, Dec. 9-10; Hearne there, Dec. 13, A & B; Bellville there, Dec. 20, A; Somerville there, Dec. 23, A & B; Cypress-Fairbanks there, Dec. 30, A; Hearne here, Jan. 3, A & B; College Station tournament, Jan. 6-7; (all following district 25-A games; both A and B teams) Sealy there, Jan. 10; Huntsville tournament, Jan. 12-14 (non-district); Tomball here, Jan. 17; Waller there, Jan. 20; Katy here, Jan. 24; Sealy here, Jan. 27; Tomball there, Feb. 3; Waller here, Feb. 7; and Katy there, Feb. 10.

Motor Supervisor

The purpose of the Motor Transportation Supervisors short course held here Monday through Friday, is to provide a training program which will assist in the motor transportation supervisor in carrying out "the unique, indirect form of supervision which his duties require," L. K. Jonas, Extension Service, sponsoring organization, said today.
