

Some Safety Tips

Tomorrow is Safe Driving Day in our community, and the success of this day is up to each individual—citizen of College Station, faculty and staff member of A&M College and students.

A few timely tips, provided by the President's Committee for Traffic Safety which is the sponsoring agent of S-D Day, would seem in order on the eve of this national experiment.

SAFE DRIVING TIPS:

Be sportsmanlike on every drive. Obey all traffic regulations. Keep speed reasonable. Start earlier and drive slower. Don't drive when you drink, and vice versa. Remember, danger increases with darkness: At sun-down, reduce speed so you're within range of your headlights.

Stay in line—don't weave.

Don't pass unless there's plenty of room—and never on hills or curves. Allow sufficient stopping distance between you and the car ahead.

Be extra alert at intersections.

Always signal your intention to turn or stop. If the weather is bad, don't drive unless you must. If you drive, double your care.

Check your brakes, lights, windshield wipers, tires and steering.

SAFE WALKING TIPS:

Cross streets only at crosswalks. Before crossing, look both ways. Cross only on proper signal. Watch for turning cars. Never go into the roadway between parked cars. If there is no sidewalk, and you must walk in the roadway, walk on left, facing traffic.

When walking at night, wear or carry something white to help drivers see you.

THE ABOVE TIPS MAY SOUND RATHER COMMON-PLACE, AND POSSIBLY SOME OF THEM MAY SOUND A LITTLE FOOLISH. BUT THEY CAN SAVE A LIFE, AND MAYBE YOUR LIFE, SOMETIME.

Everyone should join in making tomorrow, and all other tomorrows, Safe Driving Days.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We wish to thank you, the wonderful people of Texas A&M, College Station, and Bryan for their deep sympathy as you supported us in our anxiety with your prayers, your generous offers and contributions.

We have never before known such loyalty and concern, as not only the friends of James E. Saran have shown us, but all those who have answered to our needs.

We would like to thank everyone personally, but conditions make it impossible.

It's awfully hard to accept the loss of our loved one, but your thoughts and prayers on the passing of James have helped strengthen us in these dark hours.

We feel that James demonstrated a love—an above and beyond the call of duty, concern for his Aggie Buddies that lives in the hearts of all Texas Aggies.

Please remember that our thoughts and best wishes will always be in Aggieland and with all Texas Aggies.

Sincerely yours,
Mr. & Mrs. T. P. Saran
Mr. & Mrs. Chris Schneider

Dear Editor:

The Aggie War Hymn has not been heard in our home the past two weekends, for that voice which sung it so fervently has been still-ed forever. Don had his complaints about Aggieland, but they were usually followed by an outbreak of song which proved him an Aggie through and through. His great pride was the football team which he could not be a part of because of an earlier football injury, and his family knew by heart the virtues of such players as Bobby Joe Conrad whom he admired and our own Darrell Brown.

We felt the sunshine had left our lives completely with his tragic, unnecessary passing, but a ray of sunshine and help has been given us by the wonderful letters of your faculty, the many beautiful flowers, cards of sympathetic understanding sent by Mothers Clubs and by the presence of so many of you at his service.

Thank you for everything you have done to make our cross easier to bear.

PACKED HOUSE—Kyle Field was a well-packed stadium last Thursday as 42,000 frenzied football fans watched the University of Texas rise up and upset the Aggies. This picture was taken from an airplane hired by the Student Publications Office; the photographer was Battalion photographer Mike Keen. The view is looking down at the stadium from the southwest corner at about 1,000 feet. On the field is the Texas Aggie Band, performing at half-time. Where are you?

Kiwanis Club Sees Air Combat Films

Capt. Galen Fox, a flight commander in the 3531st Pilot Training Squadron at Bryan Air Force Base, spoke to the College Station Kiwanis Club yesterday on "The Mission of Bryan Air Force Base."

Capt. Fox showed gun-camera films taken in Korean combat to illustrate the value of the teaching which Air Force pilots receive.

Kiwanis Club box lunch sales made at least $100 more than was expected in this year's budget, according to Woody Briles, first vice-president. Briles said that 763 lunches were sold at the University of Texas game, and "from 50 to 100 more" could have been sold.

The club was reminded that the Underprivileged Children Committee was sponsoring its annual toy drive. Members were urged to turn in toys, both damaged and otherwise, to Taylor Riedel at the Consolidated high school shop.

The Rev. Norman Anderson announced that plans for the annual Basketball tournament set the date during the first week of January.
