

Wesleyites Have Meeting In Palestine Saturday

A joint Spiritual Life Retreat between the Wesley Foundations of TSCW, Baylor, SHSTC, and A&M will be held Saturday and Sunday. Site of the Retreat will be the Lakeview Methodist Assembly Grounds at Palestine, Texas.

The Rev. Mr. Bob Breihan, director of the Texas Methodist Student Movement, will be the discussion leader for this event. A student from each school has been appointed as discussion leader for one of the groups.

The program will feature discussion, recreation, worship, singing, and fellowship.

Cars will leave the Wesley Foundation in the morning and afternoon Saturday, and will return Sunday in time for chow here.

Approximately thirty Methodist students from A&M are expected to attend this retreat. Anyone interested will be welcome and is urged to contact Bob Monk at the Wesley Foundation.

BAKED CHICKEN

Always use a large fryer or broiler, uncut. Rub a little lemon juice, then salt and pepper in body cavity. Add rosemary or a large handful of fresh parsley, then about a half stick of butter. Rub outside of chicken well with oil. Place in shallow pan in 450 degree oven. Baste often and when nicely browned reduce heat. Cooks in less than an hour.

EGGPLANT-LAMB CASSEROLE

1 onion chopped 1/2 cup stewed tomatoes
 1 can mushrooms 2 T. chopped parsley
 3 cups chopped cooked lamb 1 medium eggplant
 1 cup broth Swiss cheese

Saute onion in butter or oil until golden. Add mushrooms and diced lamb to brown slightly. (One lb. shoulder of lamb, first cooked slowly in water, and seasonings may be used.) Add tomatoes, stewed or fresh, peeled tomatoes can be used, parsley and broth. Let simmer together a few minutes. Peel and slice eggplant. Fry on both sides in olive oil and drain on paper. Line a baking dish with the slices of eggplant and spread the lamb mixture on top. Sprinkle generously with grated Swiss cheese. Bake in moderate oven about 1 hour.

APPLE DESSERT

6-8 cooking apples 1/3 cup margarine
 1 cup bread crumbs 2/3 cup brown sugar

Prepare apples as for apple pie. Place in deep baking dish. Mix crumbs (made from bread dry enough to grate), margarine and brown sugar together, then press firmly on top of apples. Bake in moderate oven about 30 minutes.

M.E., B.A., Geology Wives Win in Bowling

Mechanical Engineering, Business and Geology Wives Clubs were winners in the Council Bowling League Tuesday night.

M.E. defeated Dames Club while Business Wives won over Bridge Club by forfeit.

High individual series went to Mona Monicle of Geology while Nancy McCarty of Geology took high individual game.

Geology Club took high game and high series for the evening.

The last series of games will be bowled Tuesday, Dec. 18 in the Memorial Student Center.

A meeting of the trophy and bowling committee will meet next Wednesday to decide on presentation of trophies, and whether the trophies will be presented Dec. 13 following the games or at another time.

The round robin tourney will begin again in January with a new series. Clubs wishing to participate in the Spring tournament may contact Ann Perryman, chairman of bowling, at 4-1254 or Joy Jones, secretary of the Wives Council, at 6-1042.

The only charge for bowling is $1.00 for the alley, bowling ball and regulation shoes. This fee includes three games for the evening.

Teams are composed of five girls representing a club. Anyone wishing to bowl whose club doesn't have enough for a bowling team, may contact one of the above mentioned girls to be scheduled in with another club.
