The first full-color cover to appear on a student publication in the United States came into being last week with the publication of the November issue of the Texas A&M Agriculturist, according to Frank Waddell, editor.

The plates were made available through the courtesy of The Cattleman, a magazine published by The Texas Cattleraiser's Association.

After the December 4 collection has been completed, welfare groups of churches will be given an opportunity to take what they need for both local and foreign relief gift packages. The period set aside for supplying the church groups needs is December 7 to 11.

HI! JOIN ME FOR A LUCKY DROODLE?

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

HERE'S A DROODLE THAT PACKS A PUNCH. It's titled: Lucky smoke rings blown by prizefighter with tooth missing. It packs a moral, too: Why knock yourself out looking for a better-tasting cigarette when all you have to do is light up a Lucky? Luckies taste better, first, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is TOASTED to taste better. So light up a Lucky. It's the winner — and still champion — for better taste!
