

After Beating Yeguars

Tigers Lose Pair To Bellville Five

By MAURICE OLIAN
CHS Sports Correspondent

A&M Consolidated's Tigers, after downing Somerville in a 32-31 thriller for their first win of the season last Friday, tasted double defeat for the second time last night at the hands of the Bellville Brahmas, 42-36 and 33-22.

Led by Norman Floeck, an all-district performer last year, who garnered 19 points to cop scoring honors for the night, the Tigers built a 27-19 lead midway in the third period only to see it disintegrate before an 11-point onslaught by the Brahmas, who took a 30-27 lead at the end of the third quarter.

CONSOLIDATED led at the end of the first half, 22-17, as Floeck meshed one from under the basket just as the buzzer sounded ending play. This was the Tigers' largest margin of the half.

Floek pushed in two free throws to give CHS their last lead, 35-33, in the final period, but Bellville hit for three quick field goals while holding the Tigers scoreless to make it 41-35 in the final minutes. The Tiger "B" team practiced Monday afternoon as they were not scheduled to play, but when the Brahmas showed up with their "B" squad ready to play, the Tigers consented but went down to their second defeat.

PACED BY Floeck and Manuel Garcia, another all-district choice in 54-55, who netted 30 of Consolidated's 32 points, the Tigers fought to a one-point victory over the Somerville Yeguars. Floeck had 16 points and Garcia hit for 14. To the highly enthusiastic appreciation of a large crowd, the Tigers "raked the board clean" against their taller opponents. Thanks mainly to their hustle, especially in the first half, Consolidated gathered 23 rebounds to the Yeguar's 15.

Garcia started the scoring with a lay-up and the Tigers broke a 6-6 tie midway in the first period to take a lead that was never relinquished.

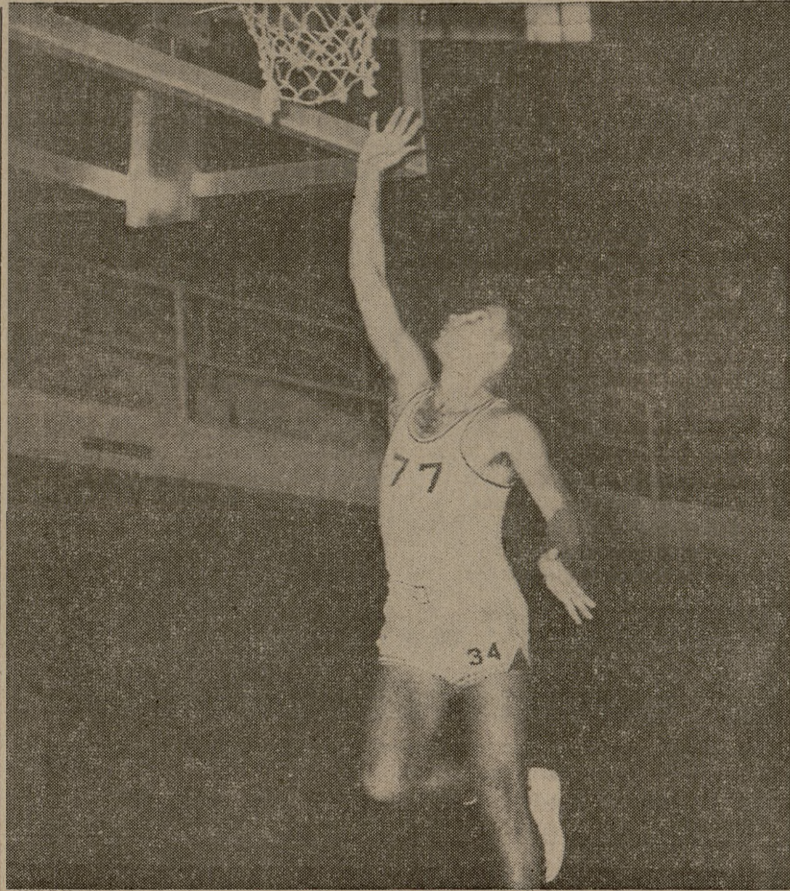

AFTER LEADING, 22-14, at the half Consolidated gained their largest lead during the third, 24-14, but the Yeguars whittled it to 28-23 going into the final period.

With 6:30 left Somerville pulled to 28-27. Garcia hit two free throws, but the Yeguars scored to make it 30-29 with 1:45 remaining.

Floek meshed a set shot for a 32-29 lead and Malcolm Griffin, the Yeguars high point man, ended the scoring with two free shots.

Boyd Replaces Sauer As Coach Of Baylor Bear Football Team

WACO—(AP)—Baylor, which has just finished a disappointing football season, today elevated Sam Boyd, an assistant coach, and made George Sauer athletic director only. Sauer, who came here from Navy in 1950 to replace the resigned Bob Woodruff, was finishing his sixth year and had a five-year contract to go. He had held the dual position of athletic director-head coach. Boyd, end coach of the Golden Bears, is one of the most famous names in Baylor football annals. He was half of the great passing combination of Billy Patterson-to-Sam Boyd that made history in the 1938 season.

Sauer himself was surprised by the announcement that he was to be athletic director only and Boyd was to succeed him. When asked about the report this afternoon, he said there would be no announcement until he had conferred with Dr. W. R. White, Baylor president, several hours later.

Ags Suffer Third Loss, Bow To Tigers 71-84

Special to The Battalion
MEMPHIS—Trailing by only one point at halftime, the fast improving Aggies couldn't match Memphis State's high scoring Tigers last night and took it on the chin for the third straight time this season, 84-71.

A&M threatened consistently during the first half, but Memphis State pulled away finally with 11 minutes left in the game. The Tigers held a slim 42-41 lead at halftime.

Sophomore Fritzie Connally, who's also A&M's top high jumper during the track season, was the Aggie's top scorer with six field goals and five free throws for a total of 17. Connally fouled out late in the second half.

Three other Aggies, Bill Brophy, John Fortenberry and George Mehaffey got into the double figures column. Brophy, A&M's leading point maker last season, dunked 12 points, while Fortenberry and Mehaffey netted 12 and 14 respectively.

Memphis State's Ken Caldwell was the game's top sharp shooter with 31 points. Caldwell hit nine field goals and 13 free throws.

A&M managed to hit 23 out of the 60 times they shot at the basket for a respectable 38.3 per cent. Memphis State was a little better, connecting on 29 of their 73 tries for 39.7 per cent.

The game marked the end of the Aggies three game tour. Coach Ken Loeffler's crew improved their scoring punch considerably over an opening 43-48 loss to Tulsa.

Three Aggies are listed on the All-Time Cotton Bowl roster. They are Martin Ruby, tackle; Charles Henke, guard; and John Kimbrough, fullback.

Against Vanderbilt last Saturday the Cadets scored 69 points and last night against Memphis, 71.

With four of Vanderbilt's starters scoring 16 points each, the Commodores dumped the Aggies 79-69 at Nashville last Saturday night.

Mehaffey, a 6-4 junior from Houston, was the game's high point man with 17 points. Ted Harrod, 6-0, was next in line for the Aggies with 15. Brophy and Connally scored 14 and 12 points respectively.

With one minute remaining in the first half, Vanderbilt's Bobby Thyn, a forward, sank a crisp shot to push the Commodores ahead for
