Fish Cagers Play Allen Tonight at 8

By RONNIE GREATHOUSE
Battalion Sports Editor

The undefeated, untied, unscored on—and unplayed—Aggie Fish make their debut against a strong Allen Academy basketball team tonight at 8 in Bryan.

TAKING THE floor for the first time this season, at Allen Gym, the first-year Aggies meet one of their most formidable opponents of the year. The Ramblers have averaged close to 80 points per game against their four foes.

Allen comes into tonight's contest with a record of two wins and two losses. Opening with a one-sided, 87-56 victory over San Antonio junior college, the Ramblers have looked good even in losing.

Monday night Allen fell before a high scoring Lon Morris but still managed to score 85 points. Allen Coach Leslie Robinson has five lettermen back from last year's Zone 2 championship team, and with the addition of an outstanding transfer from A&M, appears well on his way to another crown.

ONLY ONE Tovan will be in the starting line up for the Fish tonight. He's Neil Swisher, an all-stater from Victoria, who is also the shortest player in the line up at 6-1.

Other starters include Gonzalo Diago, 6-3, from Santurce, Puerto Rico; Stewart Heller, 6-6, McKeesport, Pa.; James McNichol, 6-6, Philadelphia and Alex Roberts, 6-2, from Pawtucket, R.I.

Curtis Hill, 6-1, Harry Max, 6-1, Jack Schwake, 6-5, Erwin Turner, 6-4, and John Tracey, 6-4, make up the Fish second team. Tracey, and outstanding fullback and end on the freshmen football team, has been out only two weeks but is showing definite promise.

"I think they're a very promising group," said Coach Ken Loeffler. "Some of them could help us out on the varsity this year."

ASSISTANT coaches John DeWitt and Joe Hardgrove both agreed the team has more potential than any Fish team they have seen here in the past four or five years.

Meanwhile, back at the Loeffler ranch, A&M's varsity is preparing

IN CLASS A football, A-Ordinance eked out a one penetration victory over Sqd. 9. Two safeties provided all the scoring between the defense-minded teams. Highlighting play in the 2-2 deadlock were Dick Lott and Joe Cooper for A-Ordinance. Jack Steele and Jim Pruitt were outstanding for Sqd. 9.

Don Lacy led Sqd. 3 to an 8-0 win over B-Engineers, shaking loose for the game's single TD. A safety provided the other 2 points. Sqd. 10 displayed strong offensive power as Tommy Harris led them to a 15-0 victory over Sqd. 14.

C-Infantry remained in the Class B football title race by nosing out Sqd. 12, 13-12. A pass from Frank Brunson to Jim Vrba rang up C-Infantry's initial score. Vrba later made it 12 when he climaxed a long scoring drive with a 5-yard end run. It was one-man action for Sqd. 12 also as Henry Coy was credited with all 12 points. Coy's 55-yard jaunt provided the first tally and another run from the 10 completed the Sqd. 12 scoring.

D-INFANTRY bowed to B-Engineers in another Class B playoff, 6-0. Jim Vester passed to Calvin Brummet for the winning TD. Glenn Hill's pass to Bud Hogan carried D-Infantry within a few feet of paydirt in the second half but couldn't score.

Bowl Team Coaches Snip Rosters To 33

Both opposing 12th Man Bowl coaches, Larry Winkler of the Maroon team and Ronald Robbins of the White team, will cut their squads to 33 men today.

In previous workouts the coaching staffs have been concentrating on evaluating their candidates. Now they can begin working hard on their offensive and defensive units. Assisting Winkler are John Gilbert and Gene Stallings, line coaches, and Don Watson and Gene Henderson, who are working with the backs. Robbins has help from his brother, Donald, Dee Powell and Henry Clark, all of whom work with the linemen.

Full pads will be issued after Saturday's practice and both teams will begin contact work Monday. The Maroon team will run from the split-T and will use a 5-4-2 defense while the White team will be using an unbalanced-to-the-right T and will have a 4-5-2 defense.

Proceeds from the game, to be played Thursday, Dec. 15, at 3 p.m. on Kyle Field, go to the 12th Man Scholarship Fund and Student Aid Fund. Through 1954 more than $4,000 had been donated to the fund through the game. All classes will be excused at 3 p.m. on the day of the game.
