

Hawkins Writes

Leslie V. Hawkins, of the Industrial Education Department, is the author of an article appearing in the November issue of the School Shop magazine. The article describes a simple method for removing the coating from used or damaged film and creating a clear sheet of plastic. It also describes further uses for clear plastic sheets.

All Ags Invited

Bryan A. Parham, Student Senate president, has received a letter from TSCW inviting all A&M students to a special Christmas Dance Saturday night. The dance will start at 9 p.m. and close at 1 a.m.

Family Favorites

By Mrs. S. S. Morgan
Our guest editor this week is the wife of Dr. Morgan, head of the English department. They reside at 500 Jersey St., College Station.

WOOD CHUCK

¼ lb. butter
4 T. flour
2 cups milk
1 can tomato soup
In double boiler, melt butter, add other ingredients except eggs, and cook until thick. Add chopped boiled eggs and serve on toast.

NEW ENGLAND BREAD STICKS

½ cup confectioner's sugar
½ cup brown sugar
Melt butter, roll bread (which has been cut in wide strips) in butter, then in sugar mixture. Bake 8 minutes at 400 degrees.

STUFFED FRENCH ROLLS

2 hard-boiled eggs
1 can tomato sauce
1 bottle stuffed olives
1 lb. American cheese
Grind or chop together all ingredients. Mix well. Remove center of hard rolls, fill with mixture and heat in oven 10 or 15 minutes. Cover with waxed paper while heating. Makes one dozen. These can be made ahead of time and heated when ready to serve.

BATTALION HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS

Everyone is fruit-cake conscious as Christmas rolls around each year. But this year why not Bake-a-gift! Select a pretty casserole, bake your fruit cake, and present it wrapped in transparent paper and tied with a bright bow.

One reminder—make your fruit cakes now. They're always better after time has allowed the flavor of the fruit to blend.

CASSEROLE FRUIT CAKE

1 cup dried apricots
1 cup light or dark raisins
1/3 cup slivered candied cherries
1/3 cup diced candied orange peel
1/3 slivered blanched almonds
1 t. grated lemon rind
1 cup diced citron

Cover apricots with cold water, bring to boil. Boil 1 minute and drain. Slice apricots coarsely. Add rest of fruit, almonds, and rind.

The Batter

2 cups sifted enriched flour
½ t. baking soda
4 eggs, separated
Start heating oven to 275 degrees. Grease 2-quart casserole. Combine flour, salt and soda. Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat Crisco, sugar, and egg yolks until light and fluffy. Stir in fruit mixture, blending well. Add flour mixture alternately with beaten egg whites. Turn into casserole. Bake 2 hours or longer, depending on thickness of loaf. Cool in casserole.

CHRISTMAS CANAPES

2-inch round white bread slices
1 pkg. cream cheese; 3 oz.
1 T. cream
Work the cream cheese, cream and salt, until smooth. Spread on bread rounds. Cut into tiny rounds about ¼ inch the cherries (or pimento or tiny red decorettes). Chop parsley until fine. Make a narrow ring of the parsley around each piece of bread. Do it at intervals to look like holly wreath with the red rounds. Since it is hard to cut cherries or pimento, use the point of an empty mechanical pencil. Decorettes may be used but only shortly before serving to keep the color from running.

Veterinary Dean Elected Chairman

Dr. W. W. Armistead, dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine at A&M, has been elected program chairman for the Division of Veterinary Medicine, Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities. He was elected during a recent meeting in East Lansing, Mich.

Dean Armistead was a member of the committee when it prepared "Report of the Committee on Morbidity and Mortality", a 180-page report in the form of a handbook of reportable communicable diseases of domestic animals.

The report has just been distributed by the U. S. Livestock Sanitary Association, and is expected to be useful to public health administrators, veterinary medical students and students of public health.

OFFICER'S WIVES

Newly elected officers of the A&M Officer's Wives Club review their job descriptions. In the usual order, seated, are Mrs. Taylor Wilkins, treasurer; Mrs. Dale F. McGee, secretary; Mrs. David E. Phillips, vice-president; and Mrs. Charles W. Jeffries, president. Standing, center, is Mrs. Edward F. Sauer, program chairman. Left is Mrs. Robert A. Knapp and Mrs. Condee C. Nason, right. All officers are wives of military faculty of A&M except Mrs. Sauer.

Freshman Wins 4-H Scholarship

Arthur R. Dommert, freshman pre-vet student from Crowley, La., was awarded one of twelve national scholarships in the nationwide 4-H tractor program at the 34th annual National 4-H Club Congress held last week in Chicago.

Dommert, a member of D field artillery, won the $300 scholarship that accompanies the award with his record in Tractor operation, safety, and maintenance over the past five years.

He is the first Louisiana 4-H club member in history to receive a national championship award.

Church Briefs

Hillel Foundation

The regular Wednesday cultural meeting will be held tonight instead, at 6 in the YMCA for the Hanukkah Paty, sponsored by the Dallas and Ft. Worth Mothers. The freshman cultural program will follow dinner.

St. Mary's Catholic Chapel

Today, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, is a holy day of obligation and all Catholics must attend mass, said Tom Toudouze, president of the Newman Club.

Mass will be offered at 5:15 this afternoon and confessions will be heard before services.
