various types of Christmas package bows.

Ambrister's company will furnish the ribbon but members are asked to bring scissors and scotch tape.

All student wives are invited to attend this demonstration.

BETTY KEITH was recently elected president of the newly formed Animal Husbandry Wives Club. Assisting her are Betty Biere, vice-president; Elizabeth Cypert, secretary; Mary Tucker, treasurer; Jean Foshee, reporter; Mary Ragland, parliamentarian and Barbara Killion, council representative.

The club will hold its meetings on the second and fourth Thursday at 7:30 in the library of the Animal Husbandry Building.

CIVIL ENGINEERING Wives Club held their covered-dish Christmas party last week with approximately 56 persons attending, including civil engineering professors and their wives.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, potato salad, creamed peas, vegetable and fruit salads, hot rolls, coffee and cake.

AVMAA, American Veterinary Medical Association Student Wives Auxiliary, held their Christmas party Thursday in the social room of the Student Center.

Spice tea and a decorated cake were at either end of the table with an angel as centerpiece. A Christmas decoration was mounted on the piano.

The Rev. Mr. Robert L. Darwall, local Episcopal minister, spoke to the group on bringing Christmas into the home.

RANGE AND FORESTRY Wives Club held their Christmas party Saturday evening in the Hensel Park lodge for their husbands and Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Young, head of department and sponsor of the club, respectively.

The menu consisted of meat loaf, jello salad, potato salad, sweet potatoes, homemade rolls, relish tray, cokes, potato chips, coffee, cake and pie.

GEOLOGY Wives club held an informal Christmas party Saturday at St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel.

Featured on the menu were punch, cheese dip, fritos and potato chips. Couples exchanged inexpensive gifts.

CHEMICAL ENGINEERING Wives Club held their Christmas party last night in the south solarium of the YMCA.

A Christmas story was presented and members listened to Christmas music.

SAX TRIO—Winners of the Aggie Talent Show from top to bottom are Roger Alexander, Al Cordes and C. J. Sanfilippo. They will represent A&M in the Intercollegiate Talent Show to be held here in April. The boys won by playing their own arrangements of "My Lean Baby" and "Little Brown Jug" as a saxophone trio. They were in competition with 11 other acts.

Trio Wins Talent Show

C. J. Sanfilippo, Alfred H. Cordes and Roger F. Alexander are the members of the Sax Trio that was declared winner of the fourth annual Aggie Talent Show Friday night in Guion Hall.

The trio will represent A&M at the Intercollegiate Talent Show to be held here next April. They picked "Little Brown Jug" and "My Lean Baby" as their numbers in Friday night's show.

Runners-up in the show that played before some 2,000 people were Edward Burkhead and Martin Adams. Both are singers and are from Lamesa and Longview, respectively.
