

Tomorrow On Kyle Field

Eager Maroon, White Elevens Collide

YEA MAROON! Three burly Maroon linemen warm-up for tomorrow's battle with the White team in the fourth annual 12th Man Bowl. Game time is 3 p.m. on Kyle Field. The game will be played under high school rules with unlimited substitution.

Assistant Sports Editor

Almost three weeks of hard practice come to a climax on Kyle Field Thursday afternoon when the Maroon and the White teams square off in the fourth annual 12th Man Bowl.

GAME TIME is 3 p.m. and a crowd of more than 4,000 is expected to witness the battle.

Both head coaches, Larry Winkler of the Maroons and Ronald Robbins of the Whites, planned for no contact work today with emphasis on polishing their offenses and working on specialties.

Winkler and Robbins have announced their offensive and defensive lineups. The game will be played under high school rules with unlimited substitution and eight-minute quarters. Players will be allowed to enter and leave the game within the 25 seconds allowed to get a play in motion without taking an official timeout or being assessed a penalty.

STARTING ON the offense for the Maroon team will be Ed Gray and Ken Briggs at ends, Ken Upton and A. V. Gonzalez at tackles, Bob Peters and Roy Millen at guards and John Zeigler at center in the line. Either Glen Rand or Gene Harding will be operating at quarterback in the Maroon split-T with Channing Williams and Henry Tom at the halfback positions and Charlie Smith running from the fullback post.

On defense the Maroons will use a 5-4-2 formation that finds Ken Kuykendall, Delbert Davis, 270-pound tackle, Bobby Huggens, Billy Dunn and John Foster in the line with Smith, Williams, Bud Murdock and Tom at the linebacker slots and Leroy Campbell and Ted Muentzer at the deep spots.

TAKING THE offense for the White team will be Carroll Hungerford and Fred Erp at ends, Dan Hancock and Louis Frank at tackles, Dick Sayger and Charlie Kugler at guards and Sam Zuckero at center in the line. Bob Singer will handle the quarterbacking chores with Adrien Helms and Tom Norton at the halfbacks and Oren Helvey at fullback. The Whites will run from the T with an unbalanced line to the right.

On defense Bob Baylis comes in for Zuckero, J. B. Wachel replaces Kugler, Cotton Carnes take over for Singer and either Gene White or Charlie Ritchey coming in for Helms.

Tickets are on sale at 50 cents each at students Activities and may be purchased at the gate. Profits from the game are used to support the 12th Man Bowl Scholarship and the Student Aid Fund.

Consolidated Loses Twice to Hearne

A&M Consolidated's Tigers lost a doubleheader to the Hearne Eagles, 33-43 and 25-49, last night in a non-district battle in Hearne.

The Tigers battled the highly-touted Eagles to a 26-26 deadlock through the first three quarters. But the Eagles were not to be denied as they blasted the bucket for 13 straight points early in fourth period to pull ahead to stay, holding the Tigers scoreless at the same time.

Norman Floek and Manuel Garcia, Consolidated's all-district performers of last season, again were high point men for the Tigers, hitting 14 and 11 points, respectively. They were more than matched, however, by Hearne's big three, Sam Begelia, Fred Moss and Joe Hill, who dumped in 10, 11 and 10 points. Floek was the game's leading scorer.

Consolidated never led in the first half with Hearne's biggest leads coming just before time ran out at 20-14 and 22-16. The score at the intermission read 22-18.

The Tiger "B" team made only two field goals in the first half and were down 9-23 at the end of the half.

A&M Bowlers Trounce Texas

Aggie bowlers took an easy win from the University of Texas here Sunday when the two teams met for the first time since 1951.

A&M lost only one game in the five game series, stacking up a total score of 4,265 pins. High point man for the Aggies in "A" team competition was Ken Savage, who got 931 pins. Texas finished the series with a 3,890 total, after having led the Aggies only once, in the second game of the afternoon.

In "B" team competition the Aggies took all six games in the series with a total of 4,296 pins. Fred Hazelwood, senior from Texas, led the Aggie second string to victory with a 960 score.

The Texas "B" team turned in a 3,710 total for the afternoon, playing against a handicap imposed when two team members failed to accompany their team to A&M.
