

The Yellow Card Of Mississippi

MACON, Miss.—(AP)—Mrs. Wiley Lentz will open a clean envelope this week and pull out a tattered, yellowed Christmas card, the same one she's received every other Christmas for 18 years.

A sister, Mrs. O. L. Turman of Laurel, Miss., first sent the card to Mrs. Lentz in 1937. Next year Mrs. Lentz decided to cut down on her budget. So she returned the old card to her sister with this greeting:

"We can't afford new ones 'Cause times are just too hard So we send our best wishes On your old Christmas card."

The sisters have been exchanging the old card with new verses ever since.

Capacity Crowd Attends Lincoln Christmas Party

A capacity crowd enjoyed a Christmas musicale last week at Lincoln School in College Station, which was put on by the Music Departments of the school with the Kemp High School A Cappella Choir and the Washington Elementary Chorus of Bryan as guest singers.

The audience joined in the opening number of "O Come All Ye Faithful," after which the first-graders sang "Away in a Manger" and "Jingle Bells." Songs by the elementary choruses included "Candles for Christmas," "Deck the Halls," and "Here Comes Santa Claus."

This Friday evening musical program followed a Christmas party that afternoon for Lincoln pupils and others of the community sponsored by the local Recreation Council.

The Washington Chorus, directed by Mrs. E. L. King, sang "O Holy Night," "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," "Carol of the Bells" and a special arrangement of "Jingle Bells."

Under the direction of Mrs. Johnnie Wyatt, the Kemp Choir sang excerpts from "The Prince of Peace" cantata, "Cherubim Song" and "Silent Night."

The Lincoln girls ensemble presented "O Divine Redeemer," "Go Tell It to the Mountains" and a 17th century hymn. Mary Frances Morse, senior, sang a solo, "O Holy Night."

James Stewart served as master of ceremonies, and the night's entertainment ended with everyone singing "Joy to the World" and "White Christmas."

Miss Jean Williams, graduate of Prairie View who joined the Lincoln faculty this year as music instructor, directed the music groups from the College Station school.

Top Pro Teams To Battle Monday

America's top professional football clubs will tangle at Memorial Stadium in Los Angeles Monday for the National Football League Championship. Los Angeles, their hopes dimmed by the loss of star fullback Tank Younger with a hairline fracture of a neck vertebra, will take on the powerful Cleveland Browns.

Roland Perdue, captain of the North Carolina football team, is a pre-ministerial student.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS OFFER

An all expense paid week-end for two (2) at the Shamrock Hilton with each new 1956 Pontiac Strato-Streak purchase during the month of December.

Santa Claus

the Italians left two of Nicholas' bones behind, and these are now in the museum at Antalya, nearest large city to Demre.

Whatever the true story, it was from Bari that Nicholas' fame spread. The day of his death Dec. 6 became a time for giving gifts and rejoicing.

America's early settlers are blamed for corrupting the Dutch pronunciation of St. Nicholas into Santa Claus.

CHRISTMAS IN OUR HEARTS

"... And so in this way, my children, Christ was born in Bethlehem."

But Christmas is more than the celebration of this event which happened long ago and far away. It is a present reality.

Through the eyes of faith we see ourselves kneeling before the manger. We have come to adore our new-born King.

Through the wonder of faith, the Christmas story becomes alive. The Christ Child is born in our hearts. The angels speak to us:

"Behold I bring you tidings of great joy... For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord!"

Our Bethlehem today is our Church and Sunday School. Let us go and take our children to worship our new-born King.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
