Ten A&M Students To Attend Meeting

About 10 A&M students will attend the Texas Regional Gamma Delta Convention of the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church Feb. 10, 11 and 12 at the Lutheran Student Center on the University of Texas campus.

Wayne Leverkuhn, A&M student, is vice-president of the Texas region.

Purposes of the convention are to get Lutheran students of all Texas colleges together to discuss the project of sending an agricultural missionary to Central America.

Employment Rise Due To Holidays

Non-farm employment in the College Station-Bryan area increased during early December to an estimated 12,850 workers—many of which were temporary workers for the holiday season. Many were dropped after the Christmas season, resulting in a slight drop in employment as of Jan. 1, according to the local Employment Commission.
