

Wives Hold Elections For Spring Semester

BAND WIVES Club will meet tonight at 7:30 in the south solarium of the YMCA for a secret party.

ARCHITECT WIVES Club will meet at 7:30 tonight at the home of Beverly Noack, 502 Luther, College Station, for the election of officers.

AGGIE WIVES BOWLING Team will bowl at 8 tonight instead of 8:30, the usual time. The bowling time change is permanent to allow players to finish before 11 p.m.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING Wives Club honored Shirley Watson, Ruth Guilloud, and Helen Gardner last night with their semi-annual graduation social. The social was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crawford, 4200 Maywood. C. W. Crawford, head of the Mechanical Engineering Department, presented the wives their "Pushing Hubby Through" degrees before approximately 35 members.

NEWCOMERS CLUB will meet at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the south solarium of the YMCA with Mrs. Robert Kamm acting as hostess chairman.

Arthur Stewart, local attorney, will speak on "Legal Status of Women in Texas."

AVMAA, American Veterinary Medical Association Student Wives Auxiliary, elected Thelma Heather president at a meeting held last week.

Assisting her are Sandra Coleman, vice president; Dora McGee, secretary; Sally Williams, reporter; Jane Salbador, corresponding secretary; Nell Cook, treasurer; and Ruth Brock, parliamentarian.

Following the elections, Dr. G. S. Trevino of the Veterinary Medicine Department, spoke to the wives on unusual cases that have gone through the Veterinary Hospital.

News of the World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower submitted to Congress yesterday a balanced $65,865,000,000 budget for the 1957 fiscal year starting July 1. He called on the legislators for the "utmost cooperation" in keeping it balanced. For this fiscal year the government now expects to spend $64,270,000,000 and take in 64½ billion, leaving a surplus of 230 million. For next year it plans to spend $65,865,000,000, collect about 66½ billion and show a surplus of 435 million.

WASHINGTON — Legislation to remove all postal and classified civil service jobs from political patronage was introduced yesterday by Rep. Wright D-Tex.

WASHINGTON — Rep. Cooper D-Tenn. introduced a bill yesterday to give direct tax relief to low-income farmers whose gross return from farming is $10,000 or less.

Astronomy Film

A movie of interest to everyone interested in heavenly bodies will be shown at 7:15 tonight in the Physics Lecture Room. This film, "Explosions on the Sun," depicts the storms on the surface of that body caused by comets. It was shown at A&M once before and was well received at that time. Anybody is welcome to attend the movie, courtesy of the Physics 315 class, "Introduction to Astronomy," for whom the film was brought to the school.

Tigers, Tomball Vie Here Tonight At 8

A&M Consolidated Tigers, off to a winning start in District 25-A, play host to the Tomball Cougars tonight in Tiger gym. Game time is 8 p.m. for the "A" teams and 7 for the "B" squads.

The Tigers of Coach Larry Hayes will be out to revenge a 32-29 defeat at the hands of these same Cougars last year that threw Consolidated out of a district title share.

Consolidated took one out of three starts over the weekend in the 16-team Huntsville Tournament, losing to Central High of Pollock, 57-37, in the consolation semifinals. In the opening round the Tigers were downed, 61-37, by the host team Hornets, and rapped Trinity, 55-22, in the second round to gain the semifinals.

Consolidated's Norman Floeck continued to pace the Tigers, racking up 22 points in CHS's conquest of Sealy, 54-41, in their district opener last Tuesday. The Tigers hit 56 per cent of their field goal attempts and meshed 16 points in six minutes early in the second half to overcome a 19-21 halftime deficit to win going away.

Starting for the Tigers tonight will be Norman Floeck, Manuel Garcia, Jon Perryman, Dick Hickman and Bill Hall.

Mike Farmer Heads Fish Drill Team

Michael O. Farmer, Squadron 1 freshman engineer from San Antonio has been chosen Freshman Drill Team commander after competition with 30 other freshmen for the top honor.

Farmer was chosen for the post after he had demonstrated ability to handle men both in drill and in giving commands.

The initial competition for the drill team was held west of Guion Hall with 512 freshmen competing. After preliminary eliminations the smaller group was moved to the area south of the Military Science building.

Trials continued until Farmer was chosen commander and the drill team had been reduced to 39 regulars and nine alternates.

The group will drill as a unit under the command of the freshman commander during the regular Thursday afternoon drill period, rather than drill with their regular assigned units.

Nuclear Research Chief Presents Lecture Tonight

Dr. Granvil C. Kyker, chief of Laboratory Research of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, will speak tonight at 8 in the lecture room of the Biological Science building.

His subject will be rare-earth radioisotopes of biochemical and medical interest with color slides as illustrations.

Dr. Kyker will show the relation between some of the more recent radiological investigations on laboratory animals and their uses in the treatment of cancer in the human.

He has done extensive experiments in the field of radioisotopes on experimental animals and their effects on cancer. He has also been recognized recently for his part in the organization of seminars in the rare-earth isotope field.

The lecture is open to the public and is expected to be of particular interest to biologists, biochemists, chemists, veterinary medicine students and staff, and medical and pre-medical personnel in this area.
