

Physics Student To Study in Germany

Worth D. Nowlin, junior physics major from Dallas, will leave for Germany Aug. 15 to study and take part in a student exchange program.

Nowlin will study at Gottingen, in the British Zone of West Germany. He will attend a three-month translators course and then study physics. Transportation is provided by the United States National Student Association.

OH, FOR THE LIFE OF A NEWSPAPERMAN!

Look at the campus newspaper you are now holding. An ordinary object, you think? An everyday convenience? Something to be taken for granted?

Faugh, sirs and madams! Faugh, I say! Don't you know what prodigies of skill and labor and organization and art and science go into the making of your campus newspaper?

Come, I'll show you. I'll take you to a typical office of a typical newspaper on a typical campus.

The editor—let's call him D. Fermin Bohorquez, a typical enough name—calls his staff together first thing in the morning. "All right, you guys," he says, lighting a Philip Morris, which, naturally, is the favorite cigarette of newspapermen, and of anybody else who knows a hawk from a handsaw. "All right, you guys," says D. Fermin, "this here ain't no ladies whist society, this here is a newspaper. So get out there and get the news. Get it first, get it quick, get it right! Ed, you cover the ag campus. Phil, you cover the school of mines. Wally, you cover home ec. Sam, you cover buildings and grounds. Ethel, you cover the men's gym. . . . All right, get going!"

... Ethel, you cover the men's gym.

With many a laugh and cheer, the reporters light up Philip Morris, favorite cigarette of the young and agile, and dash away on their assignments.

D. Fermin retires to his office to smoke a Philip Morris and write a fearless editorial eulogy of the university for not buying patches for the worn-out elbows of the chess team.

On the rim of the copy desk three expectant men—Tensing, Hillary, and Laverne—sit poised and expectant, waiting for the reporters to phone in their stories. They smoke Philip Morris, favorite cigarette of the poised and expectant. Tensing's phone rings first; it is Ed calling from the ag campus.

"Stop the presses!" cries Ed. "Got a scoop! Hunrath T. Sigafos, professor of curds and whey, has just sold his article The Romance of Butterfat to the Drovers and Poultryers Monthly."

On another phone Sam is calling from buildings and grounds. "Tear out the front page!" he cries. "Got an exclusive! Harold 'Pop' Wishnograd, superintendent of buildings and grounds, today announced the purchase of a new doormat for the vestibule of Burton Hall. The last doormat, it will be recalled, was eaten by a pledge named Norman Harringay for his Chi Psi initiation."

Meanwhile, elsewhere in the city room, Ganglia Questover, vivacious and ubiquitous gossip columnist, sits smoking a Philip Morris, favorite cigarette of the vivacious and ubiquitous, and typing out her chatty, informative tidbits: "Maureen Valgerholtz, popular Theta, announced her engagement last night to Webster Scuff, Oliver Jenkins, Cosmo Erskine, and Walter Penn Dowdy. Wedding dates have been set for June 9, June 24, July 5, and July 18 respectively. Good luck, Maureen! . . . Irving 'Behemoth' Anselm, popular fullback, blew out 120 feet of esophagus yesterday while inflating a football. Good luck, Irving 'Behemoth'! . . . Robin Kroveney, popular Deke last year, this year popular pfc. in the U. S. Army, writes friends that he has been convicted of deserting his post and will be executed on April 28. Good luck, Robin!"

And now, friends, we take our reluctant leave of the drama, the action, the tension, the glamor, the churning, the seething, the roiling, the sturm und drang of the wonderful world of journalism. Aloha, journalism, aloha!

The makers of Philip Morris, who sponsor this column, have got some news for you too. It's today's new gentle Philip Morris in today's bright new package of red, white, and gold.

Texas Experiment Station Receives Grants-in-Aid

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has received six grants-in-aid during recent weeks. Several renewals and loans have also been received at the station.

The grants-in-aid were made by the Upjohn Company of Kalamazoo, Mich., for $2,000 to support studies on the control of cereal rusts in Texas. Supervising these studies is Dr. M. C. Futrell of the Department of Plant Physiology and Pathology.

Another grant was made by the Corn Products Refining Company of Argon, Ill. It is for $1,650 and will be used to support studies on the nutritive value for chicks of four experimental milo gluten meals. Dr. J. R. Couch of the Department of Poultry Husbandry is directing the studies.

The Shell Chemical Corporation of New York City has renewed their grant-in-aid of $3,000 for research on the effectiveness of various toxicants against insects attacking cotton and vegetables. Dr. J. C. Gaines head, Department of Entomology will supervise the studies.

The Merck & Co., Chemical Division of Rahway, N. J., has made available an extension of their grant-in-aid for $6,000 in support of studies on the presently unidentified factor important in the hatchability of poultry eggs. Dr. Couch is directing this research.

Station Director R. D. Lewis reports that a grant-in-aid from the Heisdorf and Nelson Farms of Kirkland, Wash. for $3,200 will be used to support research on the effects of blood group antigens on characters of economic importance in poultry. Dr. W. E. Briles of the Department of Poultry Husbandry is directing the research studies.

Lederle Laboratories of Pearl River N. Y., has made available to the Station a grant-in-aid for $3,000 to support research on the (See GRANTS, Page 4)
