

JUST WISHING—The chin whiskers belonging to civilian students entered the beard-growing contest for the Civilian Student Day, March 10. Carlos Pereyra, graduate student from Lima, Peru, gazes fondly at his formerly useful shaving brush and razor; use of them again is more than a month away. The program for the Civilian Day includes a barbecue and western dance in Sbis Hall, featuring Bob Wills among other hillbillies.

Family Favorites

By Mrs. Ross Strader
Gerry Strader, wife of the director of Student Publications at the college, received her Bachelor of Music Degree from Incarnate Word College in San Antonio. Active in A&M Methodist Church, and Newcomer's Club, she also teaches private piano lessons. The Straders with their three children, Noel, Bonnie and Judy, came to College Station in January of 1955.

CHICKEN SPAGHETTI
This is a good main dish for a crowd and can be all or partly prepared the day before the occasion. Amounts can be cut or doubled, but leftovers are delicious when reheated. Serves at least 10 or 12.
5 to 6 lbs. chicken (hen) 2 large bell peppers, chopped
½ t. salt per pound 2 medium onions, chopped
1 clove garlic 4 stalks celery, diced
Chicken broth 1-3-oz. can mushrooms
2 seven oz. pkgs. spaghetti 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
½ lb. butter

Cook chicken, salt and garlic (optional) until tender. Bone chicken and set aside. Boil spaghetti in broth until done (add water if necessary). Meanwhile saute peppers, onions, celery, and mushroom in butter. Add tomatoes when these ingredients are tender.

Combine chicken meat, spaghetti and vegetables and simmer until flavored throughout, add water as needed to keep moist and juicy.

PINEAPPLE-CREAM CHEESE SALAD
I often double this recipe and use 1 large package of country style cottage cheese in place of cream cheese since it's not as expensive. But the result is not quite so elegant.

1 pkg. lime gelatin 2 small pkgs. cream cheese
1 cup boiling water 1 flat can, crushed pineapple
10 finely cut marshmallows 1 cup pineapple juice

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water and add marshmallows while hot. In another dish, work cream cheese with a little of gelatin mixture until smooth and creamy. Combine with all of gelatin mixture, blend. Add pineapple and juice (add water to juice to make a full cup.) Pour into mold and chill until firm.

PORK AND BEAN SANDWICH
A Sunday night favorite with young and old at our home. This recipe serves 8 but seconds are in demand.

8 slices bread 8 slices processed cheese
1 No. 2½ can pork and beans 8 slices bacon, in halves
Toast bread on one side in broiler. Remove from broiler and place, toasted side down, on cookie sheet. Spread pork and beans over each slice to cover well. Top with a slice of cheese and over all, place two strips of the bacon halves for each sandwich. Return to broiler and broil until bacon is done and cheese is melting. Serve at once.

ENCHILADAS, (San Antonio style)
12 Patio frozen tortillas 1 onion, chopped
(thawed) 10 oz. of Wisconsin cheddar cheese, grated
1 small can chili without beans Shortening or oil
½ cup or more water

Add water to chili and heat in wide, flat pan. Then keep at simmering point. Heat oil in frying pan until quite hot. Dip tortilla into hot fat for a few seconds on each side; lift with pancake turner into chili, leaving only until coated with juice. Then lay open for filling.

Place one heaping tablespoon or more of cheese across center of tortilla and sprinkle with one teaspoon of onion. Roll and place in baking pan. Prepare remaining tortillas in the same manner and place close together in pan. Pour chili over all, sprinkle with remaining cheese, and small amount of onion. Bake in hot oven until cheese is melted and onion is done enough to suit your taste.
