Sqd. 24 Nudges B-Armor Quintet

By JOE DAN BOYD
Intramural Writer

Tom Neumann's 12 points kept Squadron 24 on the unbeaten trek as it squeezed past upset-minded B-Armor, 23-20, in freshman basketball yesterday. Jack Smith was outstanding for the winless Armor quintet.

Charles Paradowski racked up two baskets to nail down second place in Sqd. 24 scoring and Cliff Tuttle was third with three points.

Fast-breaking John Moon paced Squadron 19 eagers with 14 points to help hand A-Infantry its third straight loss, 29-10, in another basketball contest. Ronald Stallings followed his teammate with two baskets and one free throw.

Phil Vance and Leroy Bergeton each chalked up three points. James Bethel and Bob Ratcliff completed scoring with two each. Randy Curtis was top man for the Infantry team with four baskets. Sqd. 19 now has a 2-1 record.

Grady Barr and Gary Hipps sank ten points each as A-AAA edged A-Athletics 34-32. Wayne Schaper proved A-Athletics biggest gun, scoring 16 of its 32 markers. Both teams now have 1-1 standings for the season.

Sqd. 13 crushed Sqd. 21, 26-11, with Donald Graves taking top scoring honors with six baskets. Harvey Haas was second with two baskets and two free throws. Mike Browner and George Stansel added four points each. The win gave Sqd. 13 a 2-1 record and dropped Sqd. 21 to a 1-2 standing.

Sqd. 16 blasted Sqd. 8, 26-17, resulting in a 2-1 record for both teams in freshman standings.

Bill Boyd sparked C-Infantry gridders to a 20-0 shutout over B-Engineers in upperclassman intramurals. This was the third loss for the Engineers in as many contests and marked C-Infantry's third mark on the undefeated road.

Two A&M Boxers Seek State Titles

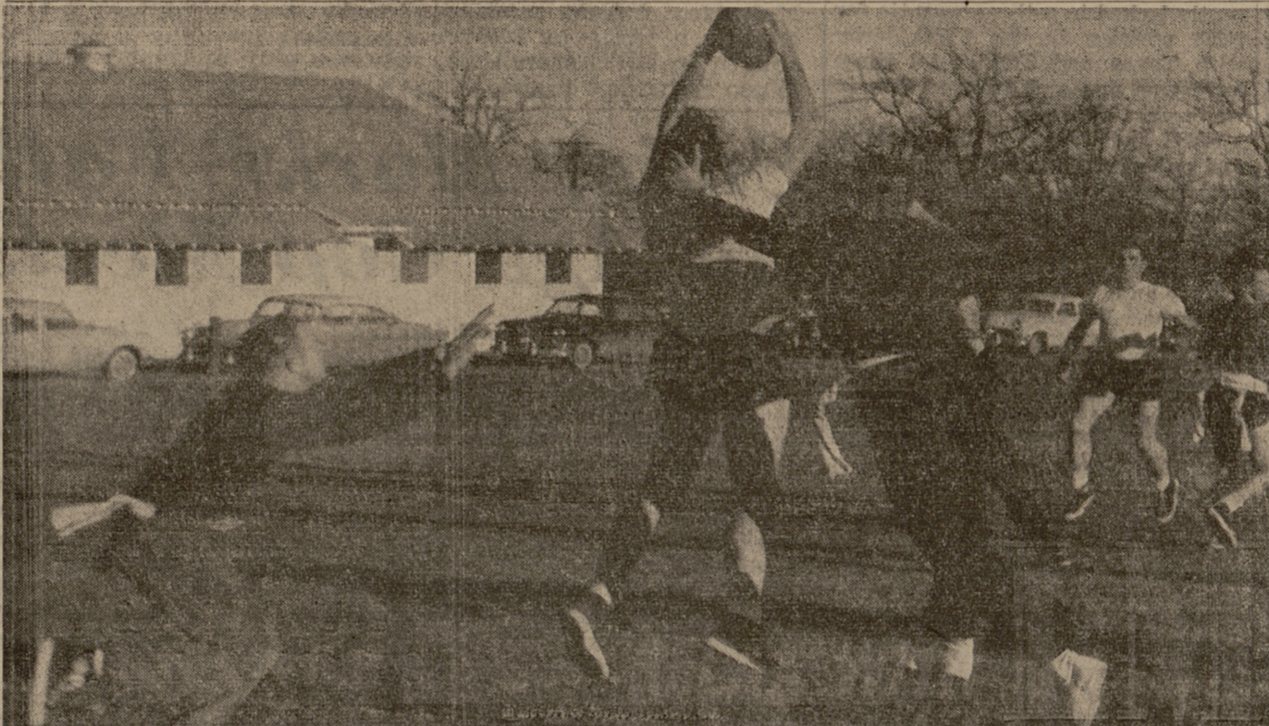

A&M's hopes for its first state Golden Gloves championship will rest on the shoulders of light-heavyweight Jack Fowler and lightweight Paul Adams in Ft. Worth February 16-19.

The other Aggie champion in the recent Waco meet, Don Earle, will concentrate on track and will not make the trip. Coach Andy York will accompany the two A&M boxers to Ft. Worth.

The Duke University football team of 1938 was not scored against in regular season play. But the Blue Devils lost the Rose Bowl game to the University of Southern California, 7-3 on a pass in the final 40 seconds.

EASY DOES IT—An unidentified Squadron 4 grider, in white shirt, hauls in a perfect pass for an extra point against Squadron 9. It all went for nought, however, as a penalty rubbed out the play in one of the football headliners from yesterday's intramural action.

CHS Hosts Waller; Can Cinch Title Tie

By MAURICE OLIAN

Riding high on top of District 25-A with a 5-0 record, the Consolidated High Tigers can cinch at least a tie for the title tonight by downing Waller in Tiger gym. Game time for the "B" squads is 7 p.m. while the "A" teams battle at 8.

Winners of nine of their last 12 games, the Tigers have pulled their season record to 11-9, but Consolidated must beat Waller and win in Katy Friday night to sew up the championship.

Coach Larry Hayes' crew bested Waller in their only other meeting to date, 46-29, in Waller, leading all the way. In their last outing the Tigers took a small lead and held it when it counted to edge Sealy, 53-51, last Tuesday.

The regularly-scheduled Tomball affair was postponed because of the bad weather last Friday and will be played next Monday in Tomball.

Why Chancellor Adenauer reads The Reader's Digest

"In my country more than 500,000 people read the Digest in German each month. And they read not only about the people of the United States, but about the people of all nations. The Reader's Digest has forged a new instrument for understanding among men."

—KONRAD ADENAUER, Chancellor of West Germany

In February Reader's Digest don't miss:

LEARN TO LIVE WITH YOUR WORRIES. Some anxieties spur you to greater effort. But many simply distort your judgment, wear you down. Ardis Whitman tells the kind of worry you should learn to overcome, how to put sensible anxieties to good use.

THE ONE AND ONLY BENCHLEY. When told his drink was slow poison, Benchley quipped, "So who's in a hurry?" . . . Chuckles from the life of one of America's best-loved humorists.

BOOK CONDENSATION: I WAS SLAVE 1E-241 IN THE SOVIET UNION. Seized without cause, John Noble (a U.S. citizen) was sent to a Russian concentration camp to work in a coal mine. In episodes from his forthcoming book, "Slave 1E-241," Noble tells of Red brutality . . . and how the "slaves" rebelled in 1953—a revolt he's sure can occur again.

PRIVATE LIFE OF ADOLF HITLER. Was the Fuehrer insane? Did he really marry his mistress Eva Braun the very night before they planned to kill themselves? Is his body secretly buried? Hitler's personal valet reveals hitherto unknown facts.
