Ags Resume Loop Play With Baylor Saturday

Remembering with glee their last meeting, A&M levels its sights on Baylor's McLean Gym nets Saturday night at 8 in the home stretch of the Southwest Conference title chase.

KORA will broadcast a play-by-play account of the game, with ace sportscaster Mike Mistovitch at the mike.

The Aggies broke the school's all-time scoring mark in their conference opener by blasting the Bears, 90-70, in White Coliseum. But indications from the Bruins' Waco lair are that things won't be so easy for the Cadets this time.

Probable starters for the Aggies tonight are George Mehaffey, Bill Brophy, Fritzie Connally, Ken Hutto and Roger Harvey. For the Bears, 6-6 Louis Estes, Jerry Mallett, 6-5, Wayne Connally, 5-11, Al White, 6-1, and Ed Franklin, 6-1, will get Coach Bill Henderson's starting nod.

A&M puts its 3-3 league record, good enough for fourth place in SWC standings, on the line against the Bears' 1-6 slate. Baylor is tied for the loop cellar with Texas.

Leading the Bruin attack tonight will be center Estes, who has averaged 20 points a game in loop action in scoring 140 points. Mehaffey paces A&M in SWC scoring with 101 and a 16.8 average.

Back on the winning road with two consecutive victories after a dismal beginning which saw them lose four of their first five games, the Aggie Fish turn their talents on the Baylor Cubs in an attempt to pull their season record up to the .500 mark in the preliminary game at 6:30 Saturday night.

Gonzalo Diago dropped in 24 points in A&M's 87-62 mauling of the Houston Kittens to push his point total to 91, good for second place in scoring. Neil Swisher leads the Fish with 118.

Tigers Tangle With Katy Five

By MAURICE OLIAN
 CHS Sports Correspondent

Coach Larry Hayes' Consolidated Tigers will try to sew up the district 25-A basketball championship tonight when they tangle with a strong Katy five at Katy.

CHS, winner of 10 of its last 13 outings, currently leads district standings with a perfect 6-0 record. Katy is close behind with a 6-1 slate, their only loss being to Consolidated, a close 31-30 affair at College Station.

The contest, starting immediately after the 7 p.m. "B" game, is a crucial one since a loss to Katy would throw the district race into a tie between these same two teams.

Consolidated moves over to Tomball Monday night in a game that will pick up lustre should the Tigers lose tonight. CHS would have to win the Tomball game in order to assure at least a tie for the crown, should they drop tonight's fracas.

Starting for the Tigers tonight will be Manuel Garcia, Norman Floeck, Dick Hickman, Jon Ray Perryman and Bill Hall.

'Murals Won't Stop Cagers Workouts

In the recent controversy over the basketball team's lack of a place to practice, it was indirectly implied that intramural cagers might have kept the Aggies from working out in De Ware Field House, but Barney Welch, Director of Intramurals, says this just isn't so.

"I talked to Coach Loeffler before the season started, and told him that any time he needed to use DeWare Field House we could easily reschedule our intramural games. There was just a misunderstanding I guess," said Welch.
