

Rheba Boyles Appointed Extension Specialist

Miss Rheba Merle Boyles of Chillicothe, has been appointed Extension clothing specialist effective Mar. 15, it was announced recently by Director G. G. Gibson.

Miss Boyles completed her undergraduate work at Texas Technological College in Lubbock with a major in home economics. She holds a masters degree from Texas State College for Women with a major in clothing and textiles. Other post graduate work was done at the University of Syracuse and the University of Wisconsin.

After entering the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in 1937, she served as county home demonstration agent in Grimes and Howard Counties. In 1947 she became Extension clothing specialist for New Mexico, where she served eight years. Last year she accepted a similar position in Honolulu in the Territory of Hawaii, from which she has just recently returned.

ESC Conference Needs Housing

Hostess reservations are still needed for out-of-town guests attending the Ecumenical Student Christian Conference Mar. 9-11, according to the Rev. Charles Workman, Director for Presbyterian students.

Anyone who has any sleeping quarters available for these students should contact Rev. Workman at VI 6-5631.

Sleeping quarters are needed for Friday and Saturday with breakfast served Saturday and Sunday, if possible.
