Leggett Appears Cinch for Title

By JOE DAN BOYD
Intramural Writer

Mighty Leggett Hall appears headed for an almost unchallenged championship in civilian intramurals. The steam-rolling Leggett athletes have amassed a formidable 670 points during the year's intramural action. Only Milner with 352½ points, little more than half that of the league leaders, offers any semblance of a threat to the Leggett sweep.

In Corps upperclassman standings, the lead continues to change as each new set of results is compiled. Sqd. 17 is currently leading the pack with 547½ points. Sqd. 10 fell to second place with 542½ points yesterday after brief possession of the top spot. D-Field Artillery has probably been one of the most consistent leaders in this division, staging a slow, steady rise to its present third place.

CHS Net Team In Action Today

A&M Consolidated's Tigers leap into the sports scene again this weekend with three teams slated to get the go ahead signal.

Both the boys' and girls' tennis teams move into action this afternoon at 3:30 when they host Lufkin and the Stephen F. Austin Broncos of Bryan on the clay courts west of the MSC on the A&M College campus.

The Tiger baseballers open their home season Friday hoping to revenge last week's beating by the Hearne Eagles, and the thirlayads journey to Giddings Saturday.

Matched against Lufkin and Bryan today are Jerry Mills, Don Avera, David Smyth and Maurice Olian in the boys' senior division with Billy Dean Letbetter and Bill Jones stroking for the juniors.

Senior division girls are Margaret Manthei, Betty Mead, Jo Anne Walker and Helen Holmes while Susan Dowell, Mary Varvel and Pam Sperry will play in the junior division. Mills and Avera, Smyth and Olian will be the boys' double teams.

B-Infantry copped the lead in corps freshman standings, edging Sqd. 12, 537½ to 525. B-FA dropped from the top slot to fourth place with 511½ points. C-Infantry and D-Infantry have been familiar with the "top ten" all year.

In yesterday's upperclassman handball Sqd. 1 swept to a resounding 3-0 win over Sqd. 13. Dave Korrt, Irv Ramsawer, Glen Rice, and Carl Carpenter took two victories for the winning squadron.
