Feldman Pitches Tigers to 7-0 Win

By MAURICE OLIAN

Looking for win number three of the young season, A&M Consolidated's baseball Tigers move into Madisonville today after bettering their record with an easy, 7-0, victory over the Huntsville Hornets Tuesday on Tiger Field.

The Tigers want a victory today in this return engagement, having lost a tough one to the Mustang crew Monday, 9-6, when Madisonville picked up five runs on only one hit in the sixth.

Edgar Feldman hurled magnificent baseball against the Class AA Huntsville team, giving up only two hits and striking out nine while going the distance. Feldman was never in serious trouble, walking seven in the seven innings he worked.

Centerfielder Bill Kavanaugh opened the third with a free pass to first, moved to second when Alton Arnold walked and came home on Bobby Witcher's clean single. Catcher Steadman Davis blasted a long double, scoring Arnold and Witcher and rode home when Manuel Garcia stroked a one-base blow.

The Tigers picked up two more in the fourth when, after Dick Hickman got on hit by the pitcher, Feldman singled, Kavanaugh walked, loading the bases, and Carroll drove Hickman and Feldman home.

Feldman pushed his own cause in the sixth, opening with a two-base blow. He scored a minute later when Jack McNeely singled cleanly to left, ending the scoring.

Either Bobby Potts or Arnold will open on the mound for Coach Edsel Jones' Tigers today.

Scouts Plan Leadership Laboratory

A "leadership laboratory" for prospective Cub Scout leaders, will be held in the St. Mary's Catholic Student Center at College Station, beginning Monday, April 2, according to Coleman M. Loyd, Cub Scout executive for the Arrowmoor District, Boy Scouts of America.

"Meetings will be held each Monday night during April," Loyd said. "Fees will be 25 cents per meeting, or $1 for the five sessions."

Meetings will be open to all persons interested in any kind of scouting work, Loyd said. Anyone with previous scouting experience who would like to help teach the course should contact Joe Faulk, director for the course, at his office in Bryan.

"We also want to invite especially each man and woman who wishes to become a den-mother or a cub master to participate," he said. "A certificate of completion stating that the student is a fully qualified leader will be issued to those who complete the course."

Subjects for the meetings include "Den Meetings," "Program Planning," "Pack Meetings," "The Achievement Program" and, meeting in separate sessions on the same night, "Pack Administration" for the men, and "Den-Mother, Den-Chief Relations" for the women.

Ag Bowlers Out To Regain Meet Title

Hoping to re-establish their ten-pin domination that was broken last season by Oklahoma A&M, the Aggie bowlers host the fifth annual intercollegiate bowling tourney here Saturday and Sunday.

Rolling for A&M will be Bill Smith, John Redden, Clay McFarland, Ken Savage and Floyd Hardiman on the first team with Joe Blieden, Fred McDonald, Al McClellan, Fred Hazlewood and Bob Scherak on the second.

Rice, Texas, Houston, Oklahoma A&M, San Antonio Junior College, St. Thomas, St. Marys and Trinity will compete. A&M took the first three championships, beginning in 1951.

A&M Flying Club To Enter 'Jumps'

Members of the "Flying Kadets," A&M flying club, will perform an exhibition parachute jump at the National Intercollegiate Flying Association's annual flying contest to be held in Norman, Okla. early in May.

Approximately 15 colleges and universities are entered in the contest, sponsored by the University of Oklahoma.

The A&M group plans to enter the power-on and power-off accuracy landing, bomb dropping, and short field landing events, according to Edward E. Rivers Jr., president.

The local club will begin making practice jumps sometime in the next two or three weeks.

Hi-Five Combo Second In Show

The Hi-Five Combo from A&M won second place and $35 at the Sam Houston State Teachers College Intercollegiate Talent Show Friday in Huntsville.

The show was sponsored by the Eclectic, a SHSTC girls sorority. There were 12 acts in the show with most of the Southwest Conference schools represented.

The combo played "Malaguena" and "Lover."

Members of the Hi-Five are Tommy Short, Morris Partain, and Tommy Adams, guitarists; Dwight Allen, drums; and Al Willaert, bass.

First place was won by a two-girl dance team from Kilgore Junior College.

Mambo Dancer, from the E. L. Cannon stable, is being primed for the Florida Derby.
