

Summer Camp Dates Announced by Army

Eight summer camps to be attended by Army ROTC cadets will start June 23 and end Aug. 3, said Col. D. P. Anderson, PMS&T.

"These dates will prevent cadets from being released early at camp to attend the second semester of summer school", he said.

Deferment from camp will be considered if it is necessary for a student to attend summer school to earn credits necessary to graduate at the normal time, or to complete prerequisite courses needed prior to next fall.

"In either case," Col. Anderson emphasized, "it is mandatory that the student obtain a letter from his dean showing the vital need of enrollment in summer school."

Deferments will be considered for students whose attendance at camp would create a financial hardship.

"The Army has no desire to force a hardship upon ROTC students," he explained. "However, those seeking a deferment on this basis must submit in writing an itemized financial statement showing how much money is available for the next school year, how much the cadet owes, the amount to be earned over the summer and where he will work. Deferments for financial hardship will be granted only when the student will be financially unable to return to school next year because of camp attendance," he added.

Geology students who must attend geology camp may also be deferred.

Requests for summer camp deferment must be submitted to the cadet's senior instructor.

Summer camps will be held at Fort Hood, Tex.; Fort Lee, Va.; Fort Sill, Okla.; Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.; Fort Eustis, Va.; Fort Knox, Ky.; Camp Gordon, Ga. and Aberdeen Proving Ground, My.

Fullerton Named Press Club Head

Bill Fullerton, editor of The Battalion, was elected president of the Press Club at a meeting of all student publications editors with Ross Strader, director of Student Publications.

Other officers elected were Kurt Nauck, vice-president; Roy (Connie) Eckard, treasurer; and Wallace Larson, secretary. Jim Bowler and James Cook were appointed program co-chairman for the Press Club banquet to be held May 18.

The newly-elected officers make up a committee in charge of the banquet.

The price for tickets to the banquet has not yet been set, nor has the place.

Two Renewals

College Receives Grants

Four grants-in-aid, two renewals of grants and an extension of a grant by commercial concerns to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station were made recently, according to Station director R. D. Lewis.

The grants-in-aid include $300 from the Gallowhur Chemical Corporation of New York to support studies on the control of cotton seedling diseases by chemical means. This research is being conducted at the Temple substation under the direction of R. J. Hervey, assistant plant pathologist.

William Wrigley Co. of Chicago has made available $500 for ecological studies of the Candelilla plant at the Animal Diseases Laboratory at Marfa and Substation 19 at Crystal City.

The Humble Oil and Refining Company of Houston has made available $250 to support research on weed control with herbicidal oils. H. E. Rea of the Department of Agronomy is directing the studies.

Texas Turfgrass Assn. has made a grant of $500 to support turf research studies being conducted by Dr. E. C. Holt of the Agronomy Department.

The Midwest Research Institute of Kansas City, Mo., has renewed their grant of $4,000 to support research studies on grain sorghum at the Lubbock substation and under the direction of Agronomist R. E. Karper.

Lederle Laboratories Division of American Cyanamid Company of Pearl River, N.Y. has renewed their grant of $2,500 for research support on the effect of feeding aureomycin chlortetracycline to lambs and the effect of this protein factor supplement upon wool growth.

Dr. H. O. Kunkel of the Department of Biochemistry and Nutrition is directing the studies. The same company has extended a $3,000 grant for supporting research on the effect of vitamins, aureomycin, chlortetracycline and other antibiotics on the nutrition of turkeys and chickens. Dr. J. R. Couch is directing these studies in the Department of Poultry Husbandry and Biochemistry and Nutrition.

News of the World

By The ASSOCIATED PRESS

PARIS—The United States yesterday gave its full support to France in her search for a "liberal and equitable" solution of the Algerian rebellion and other North African problems. Ambassador C. Douglas Dillon announced Washington's position in a speech to the French Diplomatic Press Assn. He made clear he was speaking for the entire Eisenhower administration. French officials who heard Dillon or read his speech were enthusiastic, almost jubilant, at this expression of support.

GRANBY, Que.—The town fathers in 1950 decided to stop mixed bathing in Granby's municipal swimming pool. Paid admissions dropped from a previous high of 4,086 to 1,651 in 1950. By 1955 they were down to 1,164.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.—The United States brought to the U.N. last night President Eisenhower's request for urgent and early action on Palestine. The U. S. delegation asked that the Security Council meet here as soon as possible and consider the border crises involving Israel and the Arab states of Egypt, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon. The 11-nation Council was expected to meet late this week or early next week.

WASHINGTON—The office of Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex) last night reported he has received letters and wires from more than 25,000 Texans asking him to run for governor.

WASHINGTON—The hotly fought Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike was settled last night in its 156th day. Settlement came with union acceptance of a five-year contract peace plan proposed more than two weeks ago by a government panel.
