AH 307 Students Tour Packing Plant

Animal Husbandry 307 students toured the Houston Meat Packing Plant and the Port City Stock Yard today on a field trip for the class. After arriving at the packing plant at 8 a.m., members of the class observed practices used in slaughtering and saw the animals butchered into wholesale cuts.

During the afternoon stock yard tour, students saw procedures used in handling and selling livestock. The class returned to A&M after completion of the tour.

Dr. O. D. Butler is professor of the class.

Sardines make fine luncheon sandwiches for Mother and small fry. Arrange whole ones on well-buttered slices of whole-wheat bread (or use rye), cover them with tomato slices and spread with a little mayonnaise. Top with bread.
