

CAPT. JOE BORING, Aggie shortstop, is the leading hitter after nine games with a .382 average including four doubles, two homers, seven singles and 10 runs batted in. The Dallas senior is a major factor in A&M's 1-0 Southwest conference standing and the overall 6-3 record. Boring will be at short Friday night and Saturday afternoon against TCU.

Aggies To Battle Froggies Friday Night at Travis Park

League leading Texas A&M and runner-up Texas Christian meet in a crucial Southwest conference baseball series Friday and Saturday before the home folk.

The Aggies and TCU tangle Friday night at Travis Park in Bryan in a night contest starting at 8. The Saturday afternoon game on Kyle field will begin at 2.

The Aggies were rained out at Houston Tuesday and the three Rice games now will be played at Bryan and College Station May 4 and 5. The May 4 Rice game will be another night contest at Bryan while the two teams play a doubleheader May 5 on Saturday afternoon on Kyle field.

A&M has two other games scheduled for Travis park under the lights. They are the two Baylor games of April 13 and 14.

The Aggies divided a pair with the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Big State league over the holidays. The Clippers shelled four Aggie hurlers for 14 hits in winning the first game, 15-8, but Dick Munday, righthander from Bryan, pitched A&M past the Clippers, 5-2 in the Friday night game at Corpus.

Coach Beau Bell's Aggies backed into the SWC leadership Tuesday while their Rice game was postponed due to wet grounds. SMU's win over TCU and Baylor's upset of Texas sent A&M into the lead with a 1-0 record. TCU and Baylor are tied for second with 2-1 records while Texas is fourth with a 1-1 mark.

The Aggies stand 6-3 for the season having divided games with Corpus Christi, University of Houston and Texas Lutheran, beaten Sam Houston State twice and SMU once.

The hitting of Outfielders Phil Newport and Behn Hubbard at Corpus cheered Bell's hopes for being a strong contender to repeat as SWC champions. The Aggie coach has had trouble finding the big hitters in the outfield and if Newport and Hubbard continue to wield a big stick the outfield will be set along with the veteran John Stockton.

Another note of progress during the holidays was the way Munday regained his 1955 form. The Aggie junior has been belted around in his first three mound appearances this season but looked great in limiting the Clippers to just six hits. He has walked only five in 24 innings and his earned run average dropped to 3.7.

Toby Newton, the ace lefthander from Galveston, after the beautifully pitched 1-0 shutout over SMU, was wild at Corpus and walked seven in the five and a third innings he worked before being chased by Corpus in the first game. He was hit for five runs, all earned, and his ERA went quickly from zero to 1.8.

Bell will have several relief hurl-

DICK MUNDAY of Bryan, junior righthander, reached his 1955 form at Corpus Christi last week limiting the Clippers of the Big State league to six hits and winning, 5-2. Munday and Toby Newton, lefthander soph from Galveston, will pitch for the Aggies Friday night at Travis Park in Bryan and Saturday afternoon on Kyle field.

Ticket Information

Faculty season book covers and student athletic activity cards will be honored at the four night Aggie games at Travis park in Bryan this season.

Box seats for the Friday night game with TCU plus the April 13 and 14 games with Baylor and the May 4 game with Rice are $1.50. Grand stand general admission is 75 cents while high school students will be admitted for 50 cents.

What, What Not To Do List About Recruiting

A list of what and what not to do in contacting prospective A&M athletes has been drawn up for former students by Dr. Chris H. Groneman, A&M's representative to the Southwest Conference Faculty Committee.

"Most of the trouble at A&M has been traced to former students," Dr. Groneman said in the list which was printed in "The Texas Aggie", official publication of the Former Students Association.

"We must remember that an athletic contest is only a game, not a matter of life or death," the story read.

The list outlined procedures for contacting high school athletes that would help coaches, and allow the boy to maintain his amateur standing. Suggestions in the list include the following:

"Attend as many high school contests as possible, and forward all information on good prospects to the A&M coaching staff.

"Do not contact a boy until the coaching staff has requested it, and do not bring boys to A&M without permission of the coaches.

"Give no gifts of any kind to prospective athletes, except on special occasions to old family friends. This includes money, goods, or excessive entertainment.

"Financial aid to athletes is limited, by the Conference, to standard scholarships, which include room, board, tuition, institutional fees and $10 per month for incidental expenses."

"The best policy for ex-students interested in helping the school should be 'Don't do anything without contacting the coaches at A&M', said Groneman.
