

Junior Rifle Program Starts Sixth School

The fifth Basic Small Arms Training School, sponsored by the Twin City Junior Rifle Club of College Station and Bryan started this week for 20 boys and girls of this and surrounding communities.

These schools are conducted with the purpose of carrying out the aims of the National Rifle Association Junior Program which are to teach safety, marksmanship, sportsmanship and democratic principles. Graduates of these schools fill the ranks of the club when vacancies infrequently occur.

Instruction in the schools consists of 18 hours of training in the fields of the NRA program with sufficient practical work and competition to maintain interest. All rifles, ammunition, targets, texts and other materials and supplies are furnished by the school, making it unnecessary for the pupil to invest money in guns or equipment.

The following boys and girls, all between the ages of nine and 19, are registered in the fifth school: College Station—Robert Pressley, David and Susan Briles, Furman Isbell, Ed Loehr, Franklin Perry and John Southern; Bryan—Judy McPherson, Sharon Melcher, Bonnie Banks, Bill, Mark and Cathie Hall, Mary Gainer Henderson, David McCormick, Stephanie Sale and Lunette Varisco; Somerville—David and Jimmie Hughes; and Caldwell—Tommy Yager.

Local Girl Scouts Plan Cookie Sale

The annual National Girl Scout cookie sale begins in College Station April 7 and lasts until April 14 this year, according to Mrs. C. E. Griesser, general chairman for the sale.

"Through the cookie sale we hope that every girl will earn enough money to attend an established scout camp this summer," Mrs. Griesser said. "The scouting program is supported by Community Chest and United Fund donations, but each girl must earn her own money for camp."

Cookies will be sold from door to door in both College Station and Bryan during the drive. Booths in each town will also be open for the entire week.

Girls receive the entire purchase price of each box of cookies, since the cookies are donated. Profits from booths will be divided equally between all the girls going to camp.

Homer Features A-Field Victory

A third-inning scoring deluge gave A-FA's softballers an 11-9 edge over A-AAA in an upperclassman tussel. Bob Cook and Dick Howard were leading sluggers for A-FA, each accounting for two scores.

Howard cracked open the game in the third with a neatly-placed home run, allowing first sacker Earl Geddes, left-fielder Tommy Smith, and third baseman Bob Cook to complete their round and erase an early A-AAA lead.

The A-FA battery featured the consistent hurling of Jack Edwards and aggressive backstopping by Leon Withers. Edwards and Withers each added one score in the third inning.

Raymond Van Eaton, rapid-fire pitcher for the twice-beaten AAA team slipped under his earlier showings, allowing the bases to fill prior to Howard's third-inning blast. However, the AAA battery, completed by catcher DeWayne Williams, was very efficient. Second baseman Gene Hattox was the biggest asset for A-AAA with three runs to his credit.

C-FA blanked A-QMC 16 to 9 in the day's most one-sided tilt while unbeaten D-FA withstood a fourth-inning rally by B-AAA, winning 8-5. A-FA freshmen trounced A-AAA 18-3 and Walton drew a forfeit from Milner in civilian competition.

In upperclassman rifle, A-Infantry downed B-FA 542-490 and Sqd. 7 took a forfeit from Sqd. 6. A-Chemical walloped Sqd. 20 544-386 as all five team members broke the 100 mark. Avery McKinney was high individual with 117. Ray Winburn was second with 110. Dale McCullough, Jerry Mason and Lou Datel trailed with 108, 105, 104 respectively.

A-Composite swept another handball game defeating Sqd. 17, 2-1. Terry Perkins and Fred Perrenot were outstanding for the upperclassman Composite wallsmackers.

Center News

The Camera Committee of the Memorial Student Center has announced the second annual Texas College Photographic Salon, to be held in the MSC April 9-15.

All interested groups or individuals interested in furthering creative photographic art in Texas colleges and universities are urged to enter a maximum of five monochrome prints of any size up to 16x20 inches.

The exhibit will be conducted in accordance with practices set forth by the Photographic Society of America. A plaque with the winning college's name will be awarded to the most successful entrant. The plaque, which was won last year by the University of Houston, will remain in possession of the winner during the coming year. In addition to the plaque which will be awarded to the best five-picture group, first, second, third and five honorable mention ribbons will be awarded to the eight best individual prints.

Deadline for entering pictures is this Saturday. Anyone planning to enter should contact Robert R. Stansberry, chairman of the Camera Committee.

Pre-Meds, Dents To Make Tours

About 40 pre-medical and pre-dental students from A&M will tour Baylor Medical School and the Texas Dental School in the Texas Medical Center, Houston, Saturday morning.

The group will meet at 10 p.m. in front of the medical school and will then be taken on tours of classes and facilities by students and professors of the two schools.

All pre-medical and pre-dental students have been urged to make the trip. They must furnish their own transportation. Classes Saturday will be excused for the students making the trip.

Well, Mr. Smarty, who knows a good way to clean clothes with gasoline. . . . Maybe next time you'll send them to —
