

Ag Nine Meets Bryan In Wednesday Nite Tilt

A&M's baseballers take time out from the frantic Southwest Conference campaign tomorrow night to meet the Bryan All-Stars at Travis Park in Bryan.

Proceeds from the 8 p.m. game will go to the Brazos County Teen-Age Baseball leagues. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

"The money we get from such worthwhile attractions is the only way we have of providing the teenagers of Bryan with equipment and facilities for their summer baseball leagues," said R. B. Hickerson, who's in charge of ticket sales for the game.

The Cadets, now third in SWC action with a 1-2 record, will find the Bryan All-Star lineup loaded with former A&M and professional diamond stars. Among those taking the field for Bryan will be pitcher Pat Hubert, outfielder John DeWitt and catcher Al Ogletree.

Hubert gained all-American honors for the 1951 Aggie nine that shared the conference crown with Texas, while DeWitt and Ogletree both gained all-conference laurels during their careers at A&M. All three have also performed in pro circles.

Other former Aggie players are Don Ellis, Don Wesch and Sam Kiker. Top professionals on the All-Star's roster include pitchers Buddy Closs and Mike Mistovich, first baseman George Shell and infielders Freddie Hodge and Les Palmer.

Texas Christian's rampaging Horned Frogs put a slight damper on the Aggies' hopes of a second straight SWC championship here last weekend by sweeping a two-game series, 5-1 and 2-0.

Taking the mound for the Aggies tomorrow will be either Lynn Monical, a righthander, or lefty Elo Zatopek. The All-Stars will probably start Closs with Hubert backing him up.

The Cadets resume conference play here Friday and Saturday against the rugged Baylor Bears, currently tied for second place in the loop with SMU.

Geiger Paces Aggies In Bowling Tourney

With a grand total of 1,646 pins, John Geiger paced the Aggie bowlers in the first of the mammoth three-weekend State Bowling Tournament in Wichita Falls.

Geiger rolled a high game of 222, high for the 10-man Aggie group. A&M has two teams entered in the tourney, both in Class B. John Redden, Al McClellan, Marvin Butler, Clay McFarland and Geiger compose one team with Floyd Hardiman, Martin Putsch, Ken Savage, Fred McDonald and Joe Bleiden on the second team.

The College Station team, sponsored by the Park Cleaners, rolled six pins less than the MSC-sponsored second team, who's total score was 2,475.

McFarland took second high for the Aggies in the singles matches, rolling 571 with 1,633 for the nine lines. McDonald was third among the A&M 10-pin men with 513 and a 1,615 total.

McFarland was high for the meet in his doubles match, rolling a 575 with McDonald behind him on the strength of his 562. McFarland and Hardiman teamed to roll a 1,101 while McDonald and his partner, Pursch, hit for 1,052 pins.

The Aggies will continue their tournament competition, traveling to Wichita Falls the next two weekends.
