BSU Banquet Planned For Saturday -- 7:30

The BSU annual banquet featuring a "Moonlight & Roses" theme will be held in MSC Assembly Room Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Robt. F. Polk, Jr., Pastor of the College Ave. Baptist Church in Bryan, will climax the occasion with a message on "Falling in Love". Skipper Connor will emcee.

A&M students on the program are Dave Golston, Dub Bailey, Jim Brady, Skipper Connor and Bobby Huffaker.

Out of town program guests will include a vocal trio from Mary Hardin Baylor College consisting of Bobbie Skinner, Dixie Eddy and Edwina Beasley accompanied by Miss Cleva Bristow, BSU Director at that school. Also, featured will be a pantomime trio, Shirlene Mays, Jerry Harpster and Nancy Joe Hogan from the Lilly Jolly School of Nursing at Memorial Hospital in Houston. They will be accompanied by Miss Kathryn White, BSU Director.

Gerald Thornton, General Chairman for the banquet, states that the following are heading up the various committees. Jim Manley, Ticket Sales; Morris Johnston, Table Arrangements; Henry Halff and Gene Buie, Promotion; Properties, Bert Thompson and Dennis Stipe; Program, Woody Rice; Decoration, Sammy Ferguson and Joe Van Haselen; Housing, Larry Harrington and Bivin Dunklin; Photography, Geoffrey Wan. Ticket sale deadline is tonight, said Thornton.

Bill Cocke

 Friday night, Bill was an easy second in the 5,000 meters behind Oklahoma's Bobby Buchanan, who's 15:181 was a new Texas Relays' record.

"I really like to run in the cool of the evening and that plus the usual stillness at night is why I do better after dark," said Bill explaining his times. Bill is married and will enter the Baylor Medical School in Houston next fall after receiving his degree in Zoology here in May.

Baseball

 bers and DeWitt. Palmer tallied minutes later on an error to knot the score at 4-4.

After one out in the sixth inning Bryan picked up the winning run. DeWitt tripled deep to the center field corner and a clean single by Ogletree brought him home, making the score 5-4. Bryan added two insurance runs in the seventh to make it 7-4.
