

Letter from 'Mom' Claghorn

Byron A. (Scotty) Parham, Senate president, received a letter recently from Mrs. Irene (Mom) Claghorn which expressed her appreciation to all of the students here. The letter is as follows:

Dear Scotty,
Though I am still not up to writing myself, I am having my brother write this letter of Thanks to you and all of the Aggies for all you are doing for me.

Of the first people I saw when I was brought to Baylor Hospital was an Aggie intern and believe me that helped a lot. I will be at home with all of this cast until June 10 when I go to the Methodist hospital for removal of the cast and x-rays to help determine just what the next step will be—surgery or leaving the cast off.

If I'm okay, then I will probably come back to Aggieland and will be glad to get back. And so until I can thank you personally, may I say thanks a million to you and all of the other boys that have been so nice to me.

News of the World

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
AUSTIN—The university of Texas general faculty yesterday approved a resolution to allow faculty members the right to participate fully in all elections and publicly support candidates for any office. About 300 members voiced a clear majority in the meeting, as the general faculty substituted its resolution for one submitted April 16 by the faculty council. The Resolution now goes to the president of the university, Logan Wilson.

ALGIERS—Amid a new uproar, French Resident General Robert Lacoste said last night he will ask for many more troops to help defeat the nationalist rebellion in Algeria. He mentioned a figure of up to 40,000 men.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—The United Nations yesterday published hitherto secret documents showing that the recent disarmament talks in London ended on a sour note with both Russia and the Western powers blaming each other for failure. In one statement, Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko accused the West of trying to "hamper" agreement by retreating from former positions and injecting new obstacles into the talks.

WASHINGTON—Dramatically increased jail penalties for trafficking in narcotics and marihuana were recommended yesterday by a house ways and means subcommittee. The group also urged more stringent federal controls over use of barbiturates, or sleeping pills, and amphetamines, or stimulating drugs.

Saddle, Sirloin Livestock Show To Start Friday

The Saddle and Sirloin Club will present its annual Little Southwestern Livestock Show Saturday.

Friday evening the Club will have its annual barbeque which will be held at the Grove. One of the highlights at the barbeque will be a professor-student softball game. Awards will be presented to outstanding Club members and to judging team members.

After the barbeque the Cattleman's Ball will also be held in the Grove. The Ball is given for the entertainment and benefit of Club members and their parents.

Beginning Saturday morning the livestock show will get underway. Boys will be showing livestock at the Beef Center, Swine Center, Sheep Center and Horse Barns at different times during the day.

Saturday night finals will be held at the Texas Aggie Rodeo Arena and the prizes presented to the winners.

The Ham Sale and Auction will conclude the Little Southwestern. The Ham sale proceeds will finance judging team trips to various livestock shows next year.

style flash

Jamaica Weave "Coolers" are styled from a most unusual frosty-flecked imported Welsh worsted. Bits of kemp left in the wool resist rich-toned dyes which Welsh wool, itself, takes so well. In addition to smart white-flecked coloration, Jamaica Weave worsted has extra shape-retention quality.
