

Aggie Softballers In Austin Tourney

The Texas Aggie Softball Team made final preparations today to invade Austin for the fifth annual Southwestern Softball Tournament.

The Aggies, presently displaying a 5 won 5 loss record on the regular season, will have tomorrow to participate in the elimination affair. A double loss eliminates a team from competition as a consolation winner will be decided.

At least seven teams will enter including two teams from Texas, one each from Baylor, Sam Houston State Teachers College, Southwest Texas State Teachers College, and Concordia.

Rice's John Zimmerman and Clayton Williams defeated A&M's John Medlin and Joe Young yesterday in the doubles quarter-finals of the Southwest Conference tennis tournament.

Coach Barney Welch will choose a starting lineup from this group: Bill Bates, catcher; Craig Wiegand, firstbase; Ben Rektor, thirdbase; and Harvey Helms, shortstop have already drawn starting bids, while Don Anderson and Ted Muentner will be battling for the keystone job and C. J. Sanfilippo, Ralph Clements, Gene Harding and D. Mifflin will be after the three outfield berths.

Welch's starting pitcher in the first engagement will probably be Bryan Beard, although Bruce Terry and regular firstbaseman Craig Wiegand will be standing by for the other starting nods or relief.

Ags Face Champ TCU Saturday in Fort Worth

By BOB HARKRIDER
 Battalion Guest Writer

Hoping to regain fourth place in the SWC standings, A&M's baseballers journey to Fort Worth tomorrow to meet the newly-crowned champs, the TCU Horned Frogs. Game time is 2:30 p.m. The play-by-play will be aired over WTAW by Ken George beginning with a warm-up at 2:15 p.m.

The Aggie baseballers will close out their season against the cellar-dwelling Texas Longhorns on Kyle Field Tuesday at 3 p.m.

A win Saturday by the Aggies will push them a half game above Rice to take fourth place in the conference standings and pull their league record to 6-8. Texas Christian has already cinched its first Southwest Conference baseball championship in 23 years as they swamped the University of Texas, 9-1, last Tuesday.

That victory gave the Frogs their 12th victory against two defeats and left them two and one-half games ahead of second-place Southern Methodist in conference play. Saturday's game will be the final for TCU in conference play, but on May 21 they meet the University of Arizona in the first of a three game series to decide which will represent District 6 in the NCAA baseball championships.

The Aggies will be trying for their first victory over TCU in three starts this season. The Frogs surpassed the Aggies in both previous tilts, beating them by a score of 5-1 in the first game and blanking them 2-0 in the second.

Coach Bell said Thursday that the probable starting pitcher for the Aggies Saturday will be Dick Munday. Munday holds a 4-4 season record on the mound and 2-3 conference record. Munday has a 2.7 earned run average in conference play. The Aggies will be looking forward to a great deal of help from the bat of Joe Boring, who, in the last four games, knocked in eight runs with four round-trippers and one triple.

The Aggies will be going into the game Saturday with a 10-12 season record and a 5-8 conference record in games won and lost thus far.

Ex-Big Leaguer Producer Of A&M Baseball Champs

By BILL BLASINGAME
 Battalion Guest Writer

Ironically, Roy "Beau" Bell, A&M's head baseball coach, played more basketball in his undergraduate years as an Aggie than he did baseball.

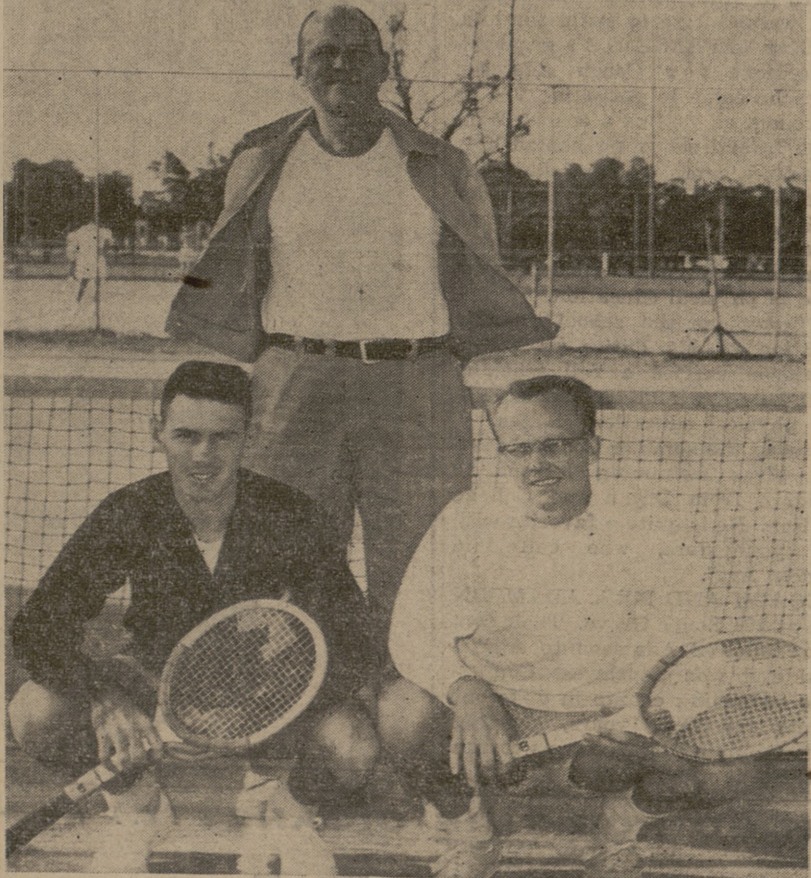

Although Bell lettered three times in basketball as compared with two years on the diamond, his fame came from hitting the ball and he was all-Southwest Conference right fielder both years. As a fly-chaser, Beau led the conference in hitting during his senior year. An exceptionally good eye brought his collegiate average to .474 that year. His homer in the final game of the season gave A&M the SWC crown.

After college Bell played major league ball for the St. Louis Browns, Cleveland Indians and New York Giants. In his best big league season he hit .344. Three of Beau's all-conference products of last year, Jimmy Williams, Joe Hardgrove and Jerry Nelson all signed with major league teams and are in organized ball now.

Coach Bell has won two league titles in his six years coaching the Aggies. Of this season's team he (See BEAU BELL, Page 5)

A&M finished fifth in the 1956 SWC net standings and are in Waco today and tomorrow for the conference tourney. Dixon, along with Rex Reed, John Medlin and Joe Young are expected to give the Texas volley men a battle for individual honors this weekend.
