

Ags, Longhorns Tangle Here Today at 3 p.m.

A&M and Texas renew their ancient rivalry here today at 3 p.m. on Kyle Field in the season finale for both teams.

BULLETIN: Today's game between A&M and the University of Texas on Kyle Field has been postponed until tomorrow or Thursday.

Toby Newton, the rifle-armed lefthander from Galveston, will toe the mound for the Cadets today against the Longhorns. Newton, a sophomore, comes into the contest with a 3-4 won-lost record.

The Aggies, currently fifth in Southwest Conference standings, boast a record of five wins and nine setbacks against league opponents. The Steers hold down the rear in the SWC race with three victories and 11 defeats, and cannot improve their standing even with a win over the Aggs today.

A&M, on the other hand, can gain a fourth place tie with Rice, which has already finished its schedule, with a victory over their arch enemy. In a previous meeting this season at Austin, the Aggies and Longhorns split a two-game series, with A&M winning the first 5-4 and Texas the second by an identical score.

Opposing Newton on the hill will probably be sophomore righthander Harry Taylor or junior righty Oren Buckellew. Taylor has picked up two of the Longhorns five wins over the season, and so far has been the main stay of a none too stable Texas mound staff.

Texas Christian, the SWC champ, wound up its season in a true championship form last weekend by clobbering the Aggies, 19-4 at Fort Worth. The Horned Frogs will meet Arizona at Tucson next week in a three-game series to decide the District 6 representative in the NCAA tourney. The TCU record of 13 wins and two losses against SWC teams is identical to the mark posted by the champion Aggies last season.

Southern Methodist and Baylor are deadlocked for second place in the conference.

SWC INDIVIDUAL GOLF CHAMPION—Bobby Nichols became the first Aggie ever to cop the conference individual trophy last Saturday in Fayetteville.

Morton, Byar Take 'Mural Broadjump

Dick Morton and Tom Byar jumped to first places in upper classmen and freshmen broad jump finals Monday as the intramural track and field meet got under way.

Nichols Wins SWC Golf Championship

A&M's Bobby Nichols became the first Aggie to win the individual Southwest Conference golf championship last Saturday in Fayetteville.

Nichols birdied two of the last three holes to post a 72-hole total of 286, good enough to beat SMU's Jerry Pittman by a stroke. Nichols led by two over the Mustang's Ken Scott at the 54-hole mark with a 141, but fell to a 74 on the third 18 as Pittman came fast, shooting a 69 and a 87.

Squadron 22's Howard Robinson took second in upperclassmen with Bill DuPlantis, squadron 17, third, Henry Tom, Mitchell, fourth and Bill Hillyer, squadron 16, fifth.

Jim Coston, of A chemical, finished behind Byar in the Fish class with Charles Green, squadron 14, Joe Hearne, squadron 10, and Burke Morgan, squadron 20, following.

Jack Heald turned in the fastest qualifying time in the upperclass 440-yard dash prelims with a 55.4. The remainder of the qualifiers are Bill Ledbetter, Dick Sayger, Bill Ayres, Charlie Smith, Robert Kyhn, Gary Anderson, George Mehaffey, Don Garner, Thad Hogan, Neal Holland, Jerry Hayes, John Posz and Jim Offield.

Aggie Cinder Team Second Behind Texas in SWC Meet

A&M's weight-heavy track team finished second behind the University of Texas for the third straight year in the Southwest Conference cinder meet last Saturday in Fayetteville.

With 62 per cent of their total points coming from the field events, the Aggies scored 53 1/2 points to edge the Baylor Bears by one point for the runner-up spot. Texas had 76 points with Rice fourth at 30 1/2, SMU with 24, TCU with 22 and Arkansas in the cellar with 10 1/2.

The Aggie Fish ran last in the freshman division, scoring only 12 points. Texas completed it's sweep as their terrific Shorthorns took first.

A&M's Bobby Gross and Texas' Bobby Whilden were the only double winners. Gross upset teammate Tom Bonorden in the shot put with his final throw of 53-8. Bonorden had beaten Gross in eight of nine meets this year. Gross won the discus with a throw of 164-5, beating TCU's John Mitchell by two inches.

Whilden broke the century record with a wind-blow 9.2 and returned to tie the 220-yard dash mark with a 20.4.

Back of Gross in the shot were Bonorden, second, and Herman Johnson, who finished fifth. In the disc, Bonorden took third and Lee Newman placed fifth.

Winton Thomas and James Clark tied with Texas' John Novey for number one honors in the pole vault at 13-6. A&M's Jim Jackson tied with three others for the fourth and fifth positions. Emmett Smallwood took second in the 220-yard low hurdles, jumped third in the broad jump and ran on the Aggies' third-finishing 440-yard relay team. Baylor turned in a surprise win in the sprint relay, beating the world-record holding Steers.

A&M's Bill Cocks turned in a second-place in the two-mile run behind Texas' Walter McNew and the Aggie mile relay foursome of Johnny Roberts, Bob McKnight, Ed Bussa and Bill Holloway took second behind the Longhorn team.

AIR CONDITIONERS
You Can See And Feel the Difference

MATHES Air Conditioners lead all others in unit sales — because — they deliver more cold air per unit of H.P. than any other. More Coil area, more air, larger fan motors, lower head pressures, reflective cabinet surfaces, all add up to more cold air out front. You owe it to yourself to come in and SEE THE DIFFERENCE.
