Summer squash takes to tomato sauce, but cut it into slices first and cook it in a small amount of boiling water. If you like you may add a little lightly browned onion to the cooked drained squash; but don't do so if the tomato sauce has a noticeable amount of onion in it. Final treatment: turn the squash and tomato sauce into a shallow baking dish, sprinkle heavily with grated cheese and heat in the oven or broiler.

Foreign Students Honored by BSU

All International students at A&M will be the honored guests at a buffet-styled supper to be held at the Baptist Student Union tonight at 6. The supper will be followed by a discussion on the major religions of the world from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

Cliff Harris, director of the BSU, will serve as moderator for the discussion on Christianity, Hinduism, Moslemism, and Buddhism. Each major religion will probably be described by one of its adherents.

The aim of the meeting is to get acquainted with the foreign students and obtain a better understanding of their religion and belief.

All International students are urged to attend and should contact Larry Harrington, Bizzell, Room 260, for reservations.

A member of Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Zeta and Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternities, Dierschke won Ralston-Purina and Danforth Fellowships last year.

LONDON—Davis Cup tennis is booming in the European Zone and all because of a stout old capitalistic reason—competition.
For the first time since World War II, there are teams in Europe which have a good chance of winning the inter-zone round in Australia early in December and then meeting the Cup-holding Australians in Adelaide late in that month.
