CS Little League Begins Workouts

College Station's Little League opened Spring training Monday with four major and four minor league teams hitting the diamond for the first workouts.

Training will run through May 25 with the player auction to be held on the 26th for the major league teams and the 28th for the minor circuit.

Opening games in both leagues are slated for June 4 and the season will run through July 21. Those participating in Little League for the first time are urged to submit their birth certificates to Jim Bevans, Player Agent, by May 22.

A Minor league Steering Committee composed of Walter Varvel, Chairman, Robert Darwall and Rusty Beamer has worked out a 12 game schedule with playing running the same as the senior circuit. Minimum age for Minor League is eight years or second grade school classification.

Major League teams and managers: White Sox—Herb Thompson and Clinton Bippert; Orioles—Wayne Smith and Herb Johns; Senators—Mitt Williams and Hank Mills; Red Sox—Kenneth Midkiff and Bobby Nowak.

Minor teams and managers: Cubs—to be announced later; Pirates—Billy Bates and Herbert Sauer; Dodgers—Major Edward L. Scott and Steadman Davis; Indians—W. E. Lyles and assistant to be announced.

League officers are J. Wayne Stark, President; Robert A. Houze, vice-president; Howard Mitchell, treasurer; Mike Krenitsky, secretary. The Board of Directors are Robert Darwall, Walter Varvel, Rusty Beamer, Jack Fugate, Jim Bevans, Hank Mills, Herb Thompson, Bill Amyx, Wayne Smith, Mitt Williams, Kenneth Midkiff and Paul Bryant plus the league officers.

Squadron 14 Sneaks Past TC's in 'Mural Volleyball'

By JOE BOYD
 Battalion Sports Staff

Squadron 14 edged A-Transportation 2-1 Tuesday winning a bid for quarter final honors in upper-classman volleyball. Marcus Crow paced the squadron's spikers with Ed Mikulenko and Jerry Gelason also showing well.

Charlie Hargroves and Ronnie Briggs aided in the squadron 14 victory as Roy Powell, Jessie Salinas, and Bobby Bowen rounded out the winning lineup.

Jerome Lednicki and John Ochterbeck accounted for a high percentage of transportation points. Both used unerring precision as spikers and displayed above average power in placing the ball.

Wayne Lange and Fred Raby started well and played consistently for the transportation team. Jim Regmund, Don Weber, Fred Galley, and Bud Fichte completed the TC roster.

A-Ordnance swept a 2-0 series with squadron 17 for a chance to meet Sqd. 14 in semi-finals. Leon Stacha and David Gore played fine ball for the Ordnance team as Jerry Wheat and Weldon Morris trailed closely for outstanding honors. Willie Cole and Bobby Breitschopf anchored the winning roster as they secured a berth in semi-final competition.

John Janak and Bryan Dedeker paced the Sqd. 17 volleyballers and Robert Kidd's fine playing also featured the airmen's lineup. Bill Davis and Dick Morton finished the roster.

Squadron 15 was the third team to cop a berth on the semi-final slate defeating Maroon Band 3-2. Al Codes sparked the winning team, looking good as a set-up man.

Ag Baseballers End Season in 5th Place

Coach Beau Bell and more than 20 returning Aggie baseballers look to a promising future, as the cancellation of the A&M-Texas game ended their 1956 season yesterday.

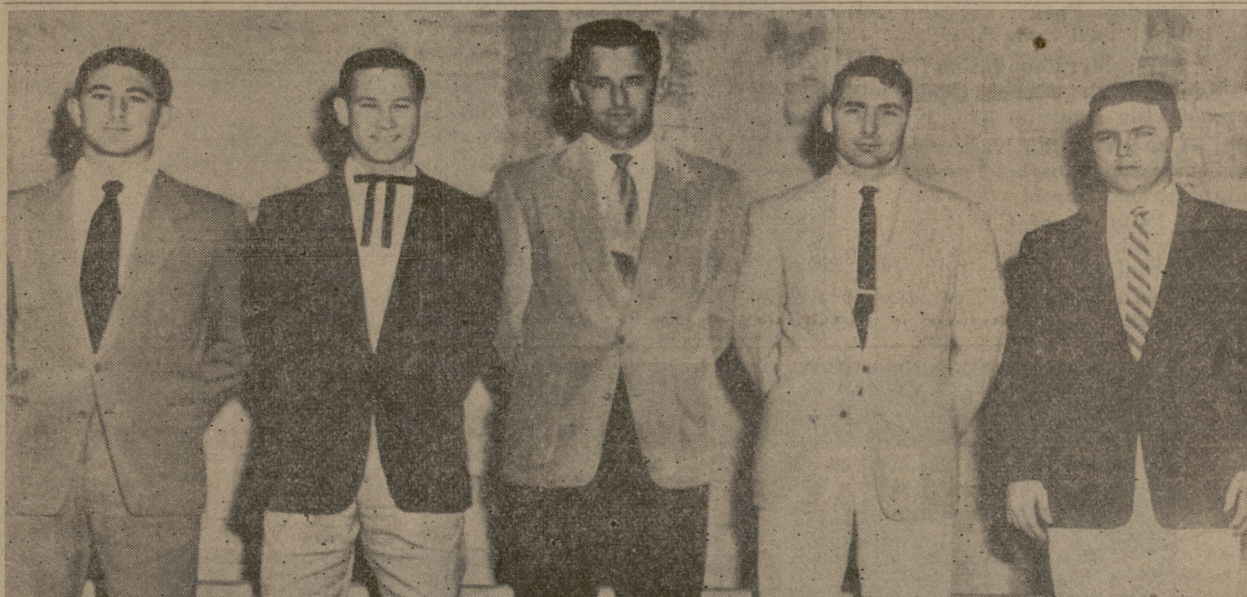

The game with Texas, regularly scheduled for Tuesday on Kyle Field, was postponed originally because of rain. As a result, the Cadets wound up in fifth place in the final Southwest Conference standings with a record of five wins and nine setbacks.

Five seniors depart from Aggie-land this year, including pitchers

Lynn Monical, and Wendell Baker, first baseman Elo Zatopek, shortstop Joe Boring and outfielder John Stockton. Boring and Stockton were both starters this season.

The Aggies dominated only one series during the SWC season, winning two out of three games from Baylor. A&M split with Texas, won one and lost two against Rice and SMU and went 0-3 against champion TCU.

Over the full season A&M fared better than against SWC competition, copping 10 and dropping 13 games. Texas Christian was the leader in both conference and full season standings, having a 14-4 overall slate and a 13-2 SWC mark.
