

Don January Leads Dallas Golf Tourney

DALLAS — Don January, who most times is in the money but hasn't yet won a tournament except a $5,000 affair at Temple last year, turned in 33-31-64 Thursday to take the first-day lead in the Centennial Golf Tournament.

January said he didn't think he had a good round going until he rammed down a 20-foot putt on the 13th hole.

Joe Cascarella, Laurel's executive vice-president, was a member of the baseball team which toured Japan in 1934. He won 12 games as a rookie that year with the Philadelphia Athletics.

"I knew I had it then," he said, and he parred the next four holes, then pin-pointed his iron shot 2 1/2 feet from the cup for a birdie.

The leaders:	Score

A cross—a hundred crosses—marking the graves of men who died in the service of their country. But why a cross?

Is this the symbol of our gratitude for the sacrifice they made for us? It is not!

Is this the emblem of democracy and freedom in whose cause they laid down their lives? It is not!

But this is the symbol of a crucified and risen Christ. The One who unfolded for mankind the truth of God's love, the truth out of which democracy, freedom, and sacrifice have come.

The cross on a soldier's grave is a call to us—a call to the living to fill our churches. It is a call to serve with eager and sacrificial devotion the Lord whose Truth men have died to preserve.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are (1) For his own sake (2) For the sake of his community and nation (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Willie Jones Leads Phillies Past Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-4

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PHILADELPHIA—The Philadelphia Phillies cast off their losing habit last night, downing the Brooklyn Dodgers 6-4 with Willie Jones pounding home four of the runs on two homers and a single.

Jones got his first roundtripper of the game and his third of the season with the bases empty in the second inning. In the fourth, Elmer Valo singled and Jones sent another homer into the left field bleachers to score behind Valo.

The veteran third baseman singled Valo home in the sixth to account for his fourth RBI of the night.

Robin Roberts notched his fifth victory of the season, going all the way and giving the world champions seven hits.

West Virginia University first started playing baseball in 1892.
