

Doubleheader Opens Slate

CS Little League In Action Monday

Local baseball fans will get an opportunity to see all four teams of the College Station Little League Park, as a big doubleheader is scheduled to open the hoop festivities.

The lid-lifter, pitting the Student Co-op Orioles and the Black's Pharmacy Senators, is scheduled for 5:15. The second game will get underway at about 7:30, with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Red Sox battling the Marion Pugh Lumber Company White Sox, the defending league champions.

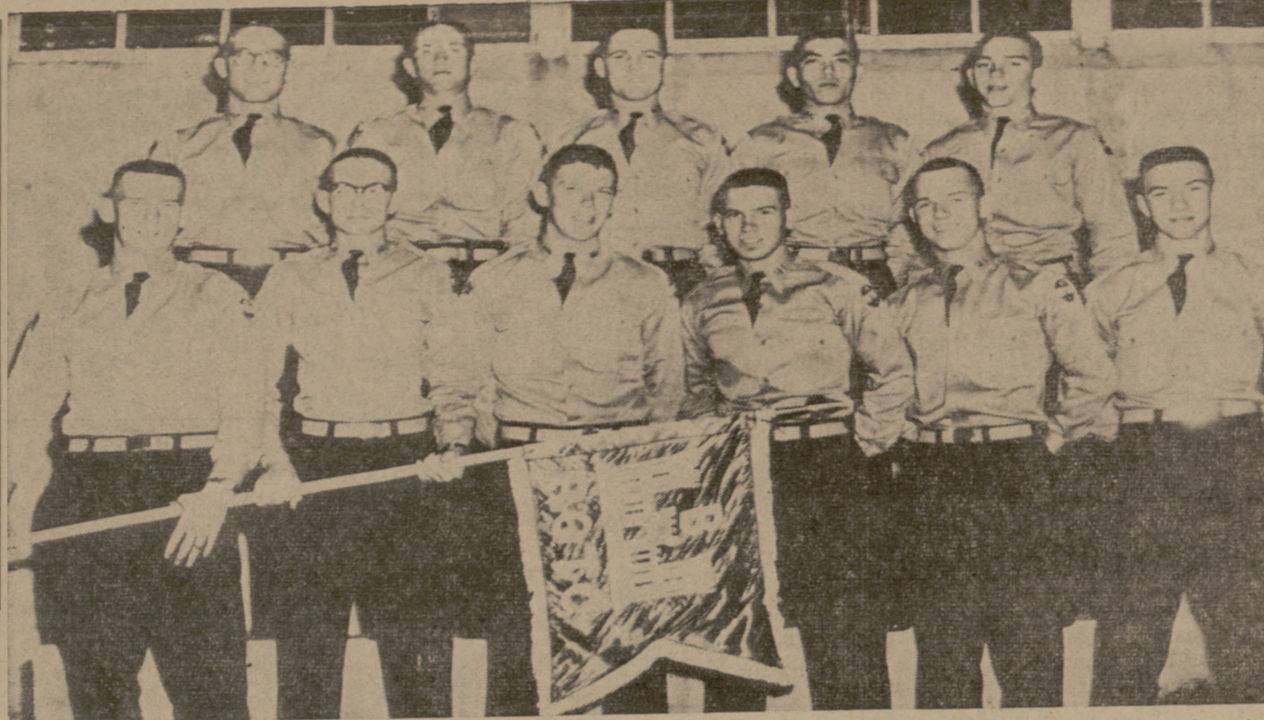

The minor leaguers open action Tuesday night at Little League Park with game times being 5:15 and 7:30. In the first tilt the College Station Recreation Council Dodgers clash with the College Station Lion Club Cubs, while the College Station Kiwanis Club Pirates tangle with the College Station Recreation Council Indians in the night fray.

Major league managers are as follows: Orioles—Wayne Smith and Herb Johns; White Sox—Bill Bates and Herb Thompson; Senators—Milton Williams and Hank Mills; Red Sox—Kenneth Midkiff and Travis Coulter.

Minor league pilots include: Dodgers—Major Edward Scott and Steadman Davis; Cubs—Ty Hungerford and Steve Dardaganian; Indians—William Lyles and Eugene Bocholt; Pirates—Herbert Sauer and J. D. Cantilli.

Ag Water Polo Team In Jamaica Matches

A&M's Water Polo Team takes off for Jamaica next week for three matches with an all-island All-Star team.

Coach Art Adamson and his 10-man team will leave Miami on June 5 for the three matches on June 7, 8 and 9.

Making the trip are Don Pever, John Spiech, Dick Weick, Carl

Mayard, Bruce Martin, Jerry Mounts, Henry Goff, Norman Ufer, Rippy Woodard and Dick Hunkler.

A&M Consolidated's John Harrington will make the trip for a series of exhibitions. He is a backstroke specialist.

"The boys are looking very good," said Coach Adamson. "We don't know exactly what strength polo we'll see down there, but I think we'll do pretty well."

The Aggies, Southwest Conference swimming champions this year, have been working out six weeks. They will return on June 10.

Pat Flaherty Wins '500'

INDIANAPOLIS—Pat Flaherty, a red-haired Irishman from Chicago's tough roadster ranks, out-gunned the veteran Sam Hanks in a stirring two man driving duel Wednesday to win the wreck-spattered 40th 500-mile Speedway race.

Flaherty, 29, barely avoiding a serious accident in the final 30 miles, drove his snub-nosed cream and rose machine across the finish line just 22 seconds ahead of the 41-year old Hanks from Burbank, Calif., making his 11th bid for America's premier auto racing prize.
