

Purveyer Leading Walton One Game In Softball Race

Old Army Lou's Purveyor nine remained undefeated after another week of softball activity with Walton running a close second only one game behind.

Wednesday, June 13, Walton defeated Law, 6-5. "Chick" Dvorchek pitched a brilliant game and added two hits to help his own cause. Matt Coyle turned in some fancy fielding at third base for the Law softballers. Thursday College View "A" beat Law, 7-3, and Walton romped over College View "B", 13-0. Monday's games were cancelled because of rain.

Dvorchek pitched Walton to a 10-0 win over Dorm 16 and Purveyor turned in a 8-0 win over the Law nine. J. B. McLeroy pitched a no hit, no run game against Law, facing only 13 batters as the game was called after four innings. Morris "Snuffy" Rogers handled seven chances without a bobble and hit a bases loaded tripple in the fourth inning. Dick Crews played flawless ball afield and added a double to start the third inning for the Purveyor boys. Jerry Cobb and Bill Fuller followed with two doubles to put the game on ice.

Walton romped over College View "A", 11-2, in the first game Wednesday night. In the late game, Purveyor mauled College View "B", 20-0. Ted Reymann collected two hits for the losers. Cobb and Crews each picked up two hits for Purveyor. Harold Fritts pitched good ball, striking out four men in his three inning stint for Lou's boys. Steve Long homered in the last inning for the winners.

The league standings are as follows:
Purveyor 4 wins and no losses.
Walton 4 wins and 1 loss.
Law 2 wins and 2 losses.
College View "A" 1 win and 3 losses.
College View "B" 1 win and 3 losses.
Dorm 16 no wins and 3 losses.

Nat'l Records Set At Jamiaca

A&M set three new national records as they downed Jamiaca, 58-38, in a dual meet on June 7, 8, and 9.

The new records were set by Dick Hunkler and Jerry Mount in the freestyle relay, by Rippy Woodard in the Butterfly event, and by the medley relay team which consisted of Norman Ufer, Dick Weick, Woodard, and Hunkler. The A&M team dominated all the swimming events except the two 1-1 lengths freestyle. Weick placed second behind Woodard in the Butterfly event.

The Aggies didn't fare quite so well in the water polo games, losing two out of three to the Jamiaca team. A&M won the first game, 7-6, then dropped the next two, 7-5 and 7-4. Team members were Bruce Martin, Henry Goff, Charles Maynard, Don Pever, Ufer, Hunkler, Woodard, Mount, Spike, and Weick.

Little League Statistics

By MAURICE OLIAN
Battalion CHS Sports

Danny Feldman, of the Marion Pugh Lumber Co. White Sox, continues to dominate the batting statistics of the College Station Little League. He leads, or shares the lead, in seven different batting departments.

His average of .667 paces the loop's hitters, with the Black Pharmacy Senators' Joe Olian second at .588. Others batting over the .400 mark are Larry Randolph, of the Student Co-op Orioles, .450; the Senators' Harry Lewis, .444; Jody Rush, of the Senators .438. The Orioles' Jackie Ross, .381; Eldon Hagler, of the V. F. W. Red Sox, .333; the Orioles' Bill Berry and George Outlaw, both at .316; and the Senators' Sidney Coufal, .278, round out the list of the league's top ten batters.

Feldman tops the loop in stolen bases, 5, total bases, 17, runs, 10, and shares the lead in base hits with Olian, 10, and in home runs with Berry, each having hit two out of the park. Olian, Berry, and the Senators' Jimbo Carroll have each stolen a total of four bases. Randolph has 15 total bases and Berry ranks next with 13 total bases. A close second in runs are Randolph and the White Sox' Harold Cooner, both having scored nine.

Pacing the group in runs-batted-in is Outlaw, with 10, and in doubles it is Randolph, with 6 to his credit. Randolph has 9 R. B. I. to place second in that department, while a quartet of players of have two doubles apiece—Coufal, Ross, the Red Sox' Jack Fugate, and Larry Lewis, of the Senators.

In slugging percentage, Feldman's tremendous 1.133 is easily the best mark. Trailing him, in order, are Randolph, .750; Berry, .684; Olian, .588; Rush and Harry Lewis, each slugging .500.

Several pitchers won fine earned-run-averages, the Senators Johnny Williams has the best, a terrific 0.94. Behind him come Olian, 1.000; the White Sox' Ozzie Burke, 1.50; Larry Godfrey, of the Senators, 1.86; the Red Sox' Eldon Hagler and the White Sox' John Stark, both possessing marks of 2.00.

A trio of White Sox hurlers—Feldman, Burke, and Stark—have perfect 2-0 records to lead the loop percentage-wise. The Senators' Godfrey has a 1-0 slate for a 1.000 percentage, but he has not won as many games as the White Sox' pitchers.

Burke, Feldman, Hagler, Ricky Howard, of the Red Sox Olian, and Stark have pitched two complete games apiece to pace the league in that department. Pitching the most innings have been Burke, Hagler, Olian, Ross, and Stark, all of them having hurled twelve innings apiece. In a hot three-man battle for the league strike-out leadership are Feldman and Randolph, each having fanned a total of 19, and Olian, who has whiffed 16 batters.
