

Orioles, Senators Win in Little League

With the White Sox already having sewed up the first-half title of the College Station Little League, the main interest rests on the hot battle for the runners-up spot. The Orioles and the Senators remained in a deadlock for second place Wednesday night, as they racked up victories over the Red Sox and the White Sox, respectively. The Orioles downed the Red Sox 14-6 in the day game, and the Senators edged the loop leaders 9-7 in the after-math.

Randolph picked up the win for the Orioles, giving up five safeties, fanning eight, walking two, and hitting two batters. It was his first triumph as against one loss.

Les Palmer banged out 3-for-4 and got two runs-batted-in to pace the winners' attack. Paul Mamiliga cracked out 2-for-2, and Randolph collected 2-for-4.

The Senators broke a 7-7 tie in the top of the fifth inning to hand the White Sox their second straight defeat. With runners on second and third and two outs, Joe Olian singled back through the middle to drive home the winning runs.

Johnny Williams went the distance for the Senators to get credit for the win, his second as compared to no defeats. He doled out only four hits, walked four, hit one batter, and struck out nine.

Olian was the game's leading hitter with 3-for-4 and three R.B.I. He also stole three bases, including home. The Senators' Larry Lewis got 2-for-3. Jimbo Bevans, of the White Sox, hit safely twice in three attempts to pace the losers.

The White Sox' Danny Bates pulled one of the outstanding defensive plays of the game in the fourth inning when he made a nice running catch of Sidney Coufal's line drive. Harold Cooner, of the White Sox, came up with another fielding gem in the second inning when he robbed Williams of a single on a well-hit ball over shortstop.

In Friday's twin-bill, which closes out the first-half schedule, the Senators meet the Red Sox and the White Sox battle he Orioles.

White Sox Cinch First Half Crown

By MAURICE OLIAN
Battalion CHS Sports Writer

A torrid two-man battle for the batting leadership of the College Station Little League continued through Monday's games with the Marion Pugh White Sox' Danny Feldman and the Black's Pharmacy Senators' Joe Olian both batting over the .500 mark. Feldman shows the way with a sizzling .611 average and Olian is next due to a mark of .550.

The rest of the top ten batters of the loop are as follows: the Senators' Jody Rush, .438; his teammate Harry Lewis, .400; the Orioles' Larry Randolph, .391; Jackie Ross, of the Orioles, with .375; the Senators' Larry Godfrey, .333; the Orioles' George Outlaw, .318; and the Red Sox' Eldon Hagler and Bill Berry, of the Orioles, both at a .286 clip.

Olian and Feldman lead the league in base hits with eleven each. In runs scored, Feldman, with eleven, has a slim margin over his teammate, Harold Cooner; in R.B.I., Outlaw's ten is barely of Randolph's nine. Randolph has the most doubles, six, and Berry and Feldman remain tied for the lead in homers, each having hit two. Feldman also has the top record in total bases, eighteen, and in stolen bases, six.

Feldman's slugging percentage dropped considerably during the past week, but he has a healthy lead in that department with a slightly fantastic mark of 1.000. Trailing him are Randolph, .652; Berry, .619; Olian, .600; and Rush, .500.

Johnny Williams, of the Senators, boasts the top earned run average, an amazing 0.94. Closely bunched behind him are Olian, 1.23; the White Sox' Ozzie Burke, 1.42; Ricky Howard, of the Red Sox, 1.50; and the White Sox' John Stark and the Red Sox' Eldon Hagler, both with a neat 2.00.

Based on winning percentage, three hurlers pace the loop with identical 1.000 slates. Feldman and Stark have each won two games, and Godfrey has captured one tilt without a setback. Next comes Burke, .667. The three White Sox pitchers — Stark, Feldman, and Burke — along with a lone Oriole, Ross, lead the league in wins, each having posted two. A total of six hurlers have tossed two complete games apiece — Burke, Feldman, Hagler, Howard, Olian and Stark.

Ross has toiled the most innings, eighteen, but he is closely followed by several other "workhorses." Feldman has pitched seventeen innings; Howard, sixteen; and Olian, fifteen. Feldman maintains a good lead in strikeouts with his total of 23, which is far ahead of Randolph's nineteen and Olian's seventeen.

The first half of the league schedule comes to a close Friday with the White Sox having already cinched the opening half crown. The second half opens next Monday as the Senators battle the Orioles, and the White Sox tangle with the Red Sox in the nightcap. At the conclusion of the second half, the first and last half winners meet for the full-season title.

This Week's Results

This week's softball action was highlighted by the duel between Walton and Puryear, which Puryear won 9-0. Now all teams have lost two games except the Puryear nine who sport an unblemished record. Marvin "Chick" Dvorchek pitched a fine game, but weak in-field support gave Puryear the breaks they needed. Jerry Cobb, Dick Crews, and George Taack were the hitting heroes for Puryear.

The results of other games are as follows:
Thursday, June 21, Dorm 16 beat Law, 13-5. Puryear beat College View "A," 9-1.

Monday, June 25, College View "B" beat Dorm 16, 8-5. Walton beat Law, 8-5.

Tuesday, June 26, Dorm 16 beat College View "A," 10-2. College View "B" beat Law, 6-5.

Wednesday, June 27, Puryear beat Walton, 9-0. College View beat Law, 15-6.

The final league games will be Monday, July 9.

College Station Netters Home From Lufkin Open

The College Station Recreation Council had five netters entered in the fifth annual Lufkin Open Tennis Tournament over the past week-end, several played excellent tennis at the 3-day affair. Tennis instructor Horace Schaffer said that the competition was rough, but the local players won their share of matches.

Don Avera advanced to the third round in singles play where he was eliminated by Van's southpaw ace, Bobby Stanton, 4-6, 4-6. He won his first two matches by scores of 7-5, 4-6, 6-4 and 6-0, 6-0. In doubles, Avera teamed with Lufkin's Gogie Gibson and they took their initial contest 6-0, 6-0, but then they were stopped by the top-seeded tandem on a 4-6, 2-6 count.

Betty Mead lost her first-round tilt to the second-seeded player in a close 6-4, 4-6, 6-1 battle. She paired with Margaret Manthei in doubles, and they captured their opening match 6-2, 6-3. In the next round they met the tourney champs, Bryan's Jo Ann Nolen and Shreveport's Jackie Birdwell, and dropped a 6-1, 6-2 fray. Miss Manthei, in singles, moved to the second round by a default, but she was eliminated by Miss Nolen, seeded number one in singles, 6-1, 6-2 in the second round.

Pam Sperry was defeated by the singles finalist, Judy Jordon, 6-0, 6-3 in a second round battle, of Palestine, in the first round;

Miss Jordon dumped Susan Dowell Miss Dowell, who had won her opening match with a hard-fought 4-6, 6-4, 6-1 verdict over the seventh-ranked entry, teamed with Miss Sperry in doubles. They bowed in their first dual against Bryan's Billie Jean Blazew and Lufkin's Dianna Reel 6-3, 6-1.

Avera is the lone College Station entry in the Baytown Invitational Tennis Tournament this week-end. As he did in Lufkin, he will choose his doubles partner when he arrives in Baytown.

Other meets presently scheduled for the local netters include the Junior Olympics in Houston in July, and the TAAF tourney later in the summer.
