

Seven Cub Scouts Presented Honors

Seven members of Cub Scout Pack 802 were presented the highest award in Cub Scouting recently.

Frank Brown IV, Sidney Coufal, Bobby Houze, Mike Murray, Mike Robison, John Southern and Ernest Wright were presented the Webelos Award at ceremonies by their fathers. After receiving their respective badges the boys then pinned miniature Webelos badges on their mothers. Hunting arrows were presented to each boy as a symbol of their Cub Scout days. Kurt Schember and James McAfee were eligible but were out of town.

A picnic and watermelon feast preceded the ceremonies. J. M. Mills, Cubmaster, was in charge of the program.

Don't cry, little man, don't cry...

This unhappy little fellow is learning an important lesson—tears do not solve problems.

Life brings many difficulties to the average person, often heavy burdens of responsibility, grief, and pain that must be met without compromise.

But there is a wise solution for all of us if we fortify ourselves with qualities that will give courage, faith, and hope in the face of all trouble.

In hours of stress and anxiety, the Christian religion is a rock of refuge. In the Church you will find spiritual strength, guidance, and enduring comfort. Go to God's House and put your trust in Him.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
