

Methodists To Entertain New A&M Students

Families of the A&M Methodist Church in College Station will play host to several hundred new A&M College students of Methodist affiliation or interest at a banquet and reception Sunday evening.

Dinner will be served at 6 p. m. from tables set up on the church lawn, according to R. L. Elkins, reception chairman. Each family will bring enough food for itself and a minimum of six Aggie guests.

On hand to greet the students along with the congregation and members of the official board will be the Rev. Nolan R. Vance, pastor, and the Rev. Robert C. Monk, director of the Wesley Foundation.

An orientation meeting and vesper service will be held in the Wesley Foundation building following the dinner.

Assisting with arrangements are G. E. Madeley, Dr. R. B. Kamm, John Pruitt, Dr. John Kincaannon and Ray Oden, the fellowship committee of the official board, and members of the WSCS.

Custodial Course Now Being Held

A supervisor training course for custodial supervisors employed on the A&M campus is being held here this week. The special course, introduced for the first time on the campus, is conducted by the supervisor training department of the Engineering Extension Service.

The 30-hour school will provide instruction on such topics as how to teach employees their jobs, job responsibilities, and human relations.

Requested by Lawrence P. Cobble, chief of custodial services, and J. K. Walker, superintendent of the Building and College Utilities Department seven supervisors are attending the courses. They are C. A. Holden, Henry Baker, J. C. Wilson, Milton Williams, Don Brogdon, James L. Rosier and H. R. Sca.

Social Whirl

Officers Wives Club held its monthly luncheon and bridge meeting today at the Oaks at 12:30 p. m. Hostesses were Mrs. O. C. McIntyre, Mrs. M. D. Welty, and Mrs. E. C. Vike.

Aggie Couples Bridge Club will hold its next meeting on Sept. 21 at 7:30 p. m. in the YMCA. Lucile and Joe Prior will be hostess and host. Winners at the last party held Aug. 31 were Harry Hearne, high man, and Dianne Baker, high woman.

New Students

 The rest of the week will be spent in explaining and familiarizing the students with all of the phases of administration and activity, extra curricular activity and general information useful for the new students to know and understand before the regular semester begins, Sept. 17.

Well, Mr. Smarty, who knows a good way to clean clothes with gasoline. . . . Maybe next time you'll send them to —
