

Injured-Plagued Aggies Take It Easy In Preparation for Villanova Saturday

'Mural Men Meet in 'Y' Wednesday

All intramural sports managers should make special note of the change in their meeting time with Barney Welsh. This meeting is of special concern to all, for it is here that Barney will lay out this semester's intramural schedule.

The meeting, originally scheduled for Thursday, has been changed to Wednesday, at 5 p. m. room 202 in the YMCA.

The first sport planned for this season is the intramural swimming on October the first, second, and third. The preliminaries for swimming will be on Monday the eighth, and the diving on Tuesday the ninth. Wednesday the 10th we will have the finals in both events.

AGGIE GUARD MURRY TRIMBLE—counted on to bolster A&M's middle against the ponderous Wildcat line is sidelined with a broken rib in last Saturday's game scrimmage.

With six players on the injured list and another only able to take a minimum of contact, Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's Aggies took it easy Monday in preparation for the northern invasion of Villanova's tremendous Wildcats Saturday.

Plagued by injuries in the last week, Bryant's hope for his first opening-game victory as coach of the Aggies gets dimmer by the day.

"We didn't do much today," commented the head coach. "We're not going to scrimmage any this week—we're too interested in getting well."

The Cadets limited their Monday practice to work on plays by the backs, pass defense and kicking.

The heralded freshman quarterback, Charles Milstead, ran from the Wildcat T formation and did the throwing, but was hampered in his accuracy by the inadequacy of his forward wall. The team worked on punts, extra points and field goals, with Ed Dudley, Roddy Osborne, Loyd Taylor and Bobby Conrad doing the toeing.

Hoping to parallel A&M's comeback of 1955, Villanova sends a ponderous team after its third consecutive win over the Cadets. The Aggies took the series opener, 33-7, in 1939, but the Wildcats have won the other two, 34-14 in 1948, and 35-0 in 1949.

BOOSTING A 20-pound-per-man edge in weight in the line, Villanova moves into Kyle Field with a forward wall averaging 215 pounds, including a pair of 230-pound tackles, publicized Don Luzzi and Ron Cherubini.

Although they won but one of 10 games in 1955, the Wildcats return 24 lettermen and a group of sophomores that were undefeated as freshmen and labeled the finest frosh team in Villanova history. At every position the Wildcats have a veteran supported by a bright sophomore.

Five lettermen are back at the halfbacks with Davey Parr, John Bauer, the team's top ground gainer in 1955, and Rick Sapienza, their fastest back, providing breakaway threat. Rollie West, 215 pound soph holds down fullback in front of two lettermen.

AT QUARTERBACK the Wildcats hope Bill Magee, who had a fine spring and has improved as a passer, and Jim Grazione, 6-2, 190, pound soph who led the Villanova freshmen to new scoring records last season, will provide adequate ball handling.

Williams Leads A. L.

NEW YORK—Ted Williams has a .352 batting average with 364 times at bat. Mickey Mantle is at .350. Each has 10 games left to play.

Williams, a four-time batting champ, has come on strong in the past couple of weeks. Last week alone he gained 8 points, collecting 11 hits in 24 trips. Mantle, meanwhile, fell 5 points with 6-for-25 while dropping from the top spot Friday night for the first time this season.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—George Walker, Arkansas' injured quarterback, worked out in pads for the first time in more than a week.

It appeared unlikely, however, that he would see action against Hardin Simmons in the Razorbacks' opening game here Saturday.

Walker, a senior and top choice for quarterback, suffered a knee injury in a dress rehearsal scrimmage Sept. 8.

NEW YORK—Home runs by Billy Bruton, Jack Dittmer and Ed Mathews brought Milwaukee's second-place Braves a 4-1 nightcap victory last night against New York after southpaw Johnny Antonelli, hitting a two-run homer and giving just six hits, had gained a 7-2 Giants' victory in the first game of a two-night doubleheader.

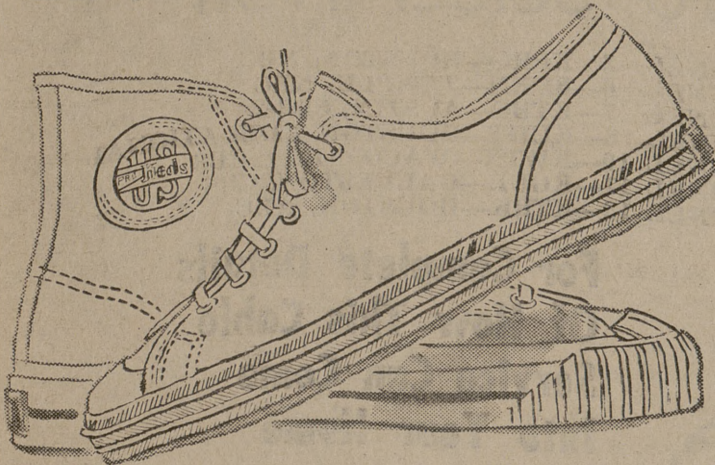

LONDON—The case of the missing Russian discus thrower, almost forgotten in the Suez crisis, zoomed back into the news Monday night.

High government officials were reported to be reviewing the case of Nina Ponomareva, who is believed still in London. An informed source intimated that the case against Nina, who skipped bail after being charged with stealing five cheap hats from a London store, may be dropped. Nina is believed to still be enjoying the diplomatic sanctuary of the Soviet Embassy.
