Roberts Wins 19; Braves Lead by 1

BROOKLYN—Robin Roberts threw a dark blanket over Brooklyn's pennant hopes Wednesday by pitching the Philadelphia Phillies to a 7-3 victory that damped the desperate Dodgers' full hope behind the league-leading Milwaukee Braves.

The defeat, witnessed by 7,847 stunned spectators in cold, windswept Ebbets Field, cast a pall over the Dodgers, who had pinned their hopes for a first place tie on the shoulders of their 26-game winning ace, Don Newcombe.

Big Newk, however, working with only two days of rest following his five-hour, rain-interrupted pitching chore in Pittsburgh Sunday, was not quite up to it. He had to be excused at the end of five innings, trailing 4-2, after having bashed for five of Philadelphia's 10 hits.

Although Newcombe obviously showed the effects of his strenuous marathon job in Pittsburgh, he might have fared better were it not for Sandy Amoros' glaring miff of Elmer Valo's routine fly to left in the second inning. The Phillis took advantage of this unexpected aid by jumping in Newcombe for three runs, two of them unearned, to overcome a 1-0 deficit. The Dodgers never recovered from the blow.

With only three games remaining to play, the Dodgers now find themselves behind the Braves in the important "East" column for the first time in nearly two weeks.

Milwaukee, with three games to play, has a 91-60 mark for a .603 percentage. Brooklyn, also, with

Fish Gridders Begin Tasting Hard Practice

A&M's Freshman eleven are "tasting" the Aggie brand of gridiron activity as serious scrimmages begin to supplement fundamental drill.

"It's very difficult to make definite statements concerning any individual players at this stage," Coach Bryant mused. However, the Aggie mentor expressed considerable hope for halfback Gordon LeBeouf. "He looks like a fine prospect to me," Bryant said.

The Fish worked out in seven colors yesterday, scrimmaging with the varsity's third and fourth teams. "They hit hard and, in general, I'm pleased with their showing," declared Bryant.

About 95 fresh footballers are still working for a berth on the team. No interested player will be cut and everyone will get an even break to show what he has, asserted Coach Bryant.

The Fish open the season October 4 on Kyle Field at 7:30 against the U. of H. Kittens. On October 11 they go to Ft. Worth, meeting TCU at 7:30. The Baylor Cubs host the Fish October 18 in another 7:30 game. On November 8 the Rice Slimes invade Kyle Field for a 7:30 tilt. Final game is November 24 with the Texas Shorthorns in Kyle Field at 2 p.m.

three to play, has a 90-61 record for .596 and trails by one game. The Cincinnati Reds, 89-63 and .586, are 2½ games behind with two games to play.

Roberts, making a determined, 11th-hour bid to achieve 20 victories for his seventh consecutive season, throttled the Dodgers with five hits, only one through the last six innings, to register his 19th triumph.
