

Tigers Try Eagles In Houston Tonite

A&M Consolidated attempts to spoil the Smiley Eagle's perfect record tonight at 8 in Houston. The Eagles of 10-AAA have successfully defended their goal twice without allowing a score.

For the second consecutive week the Tigers are outweighed and given small chance of victory. Smiley boasts a tremendous weight advantage of 24 pounds per man over the light Tigers. In the backfield, the difference will be even greater. Over all, the Eagles will average 175 pounds per man and Consolidated, 151.

Head Coach Horace Schaffer has been well pleased with the Tiger spirit and hustle in practice this week following last Friday's mauling.

Ags Try to Pull Ahead In Series With LSU

SPORT SLANTS

By BARRY HART
Battalion Sports Editor

It's beginning to look like a decent prophet can't make a cent any more. Too many upsets. Look at last week, for example, SMU beats Notre Dame and Syracuse broke Maryland in half. Who would have thought it? There's no justice!

So far I've read two sportswriters who are picking LSU to upset A&M tomorrow night in Baton Rouge—Bill Rives, of the Dallas Morning News, and Will Grimmsley, of the Associated Press. Both take the Tigers by six, but I can't see it. The Ags have really picked up this week and are beginning to show the kind of football they played last year. The Tigers have only one really experienced back and their great tackle, Earl Leggett, might not play due to an injury.

I'll try 'em this way for the weekend:

A&M 20 - LSU 7
Georgia Tech 14 - SMU 13
Arkansas 20 - Oklahoma A&M 13
Baylor 27 - Texas Tech 7
Houston 21 - Mississippi State 7
Texas 27 - Tulane 14

SMU had their big one last Saturday; who'd think they can do it twice in a row? Georgia Tech will be tougher than Notre Dame and the Mustangs don't figure to be as high again.

Arkansas, even with the loss of quarterback George Walker, should take the Oklahoma Aggies. Geo. Nesbitt and Company will have their hands full, though.

Baylor is a powerhouse and the Lubbock bunch is weaker in '56 than in many years. The Bears threw only seven passes against California last week and still won. Doyle Traylor hasn't even started warming up yet. They'll score almost at will.

The Cougars open their season tomorrow night in Houston before a crowd of over 50,000. They've got their finest team in history and will have no trouble putting down Mississippi State.

Texas moves into New Orleans with a bitter taste still in their mouths after last week's 44-20 mauling at the hands of USC. The Greenies haven't anything resembling a C. R. Roberts and the Steers will want this one, so we'll give it to them.

A&M moves into Louisiana territory tonight, but not for the purpose of buying land.

Instead, the Aggies and Paul Bryant are out to move back into the nation's top 10 football teams with a victory over the LSU Tigers. In a series dating back to the 19th century, the Cadets and the swampland Bengals are all tied with 10 wins apiece and two games even. A&M won the first and the last and hope to pull out in front in 1956. The 1899 game was all Aggie, as the Brazos bunch bounced the Tigers 52-0, and last year Bryant's team tore LSU, 28-0.

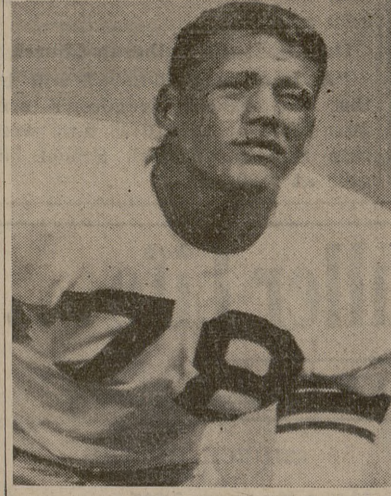

Thirty-eight Cadet gridders embark by plane at 6:30 tonight for Baton Rouge and Saturday night's encounter with the upset-minded Tigers. It'll be LSU's opener and with four weeks of workouts behind them, they should be ready.

The Aggies spent Thursday polishing their offense for the Bengals and will be at full strength for the first time in 1956. Charlie Krueger, regular left tackle, missed the opener against Villanova but will be back at his position tomorrow with Bobby Lockett moving to the right side.

Both Jack Pardee and Dennis Goehring, who were injured last Saturday and worked lightly all week, will be available for heavy duty as will second-team guard Tommy Howard, who also missed the season opener.

Pugh's 79-Yard Scamper Paces Kittens to 25-0 Win

Condy Pugh stole the gridiron show last night with a 79-yard touchdown gallop as CHS's Kittens ran roughshod over the Navasota Fangs 25-0.

Pugh's off-tackle run exploded in the fourth quarter and completed the night's scoring. Conversion attempt was no good.

Ronnie Rea scampered 31 yards for the game's first TD and Pugh booted the extra point. In the second quarter Russell loosed a 30-yard scoring aerial to Cyril Burke for a 13-0 tally. Conversion try was no good. Rea climaxed a powerful Kitten drive late in the second period with a 6-yard jaunt over the double stripe. CHS was again unable to place the extra marker. Pugh's grand stand sprint came after a scoreless third quarter.

The only Navasota threat came early in the fourth quarter when the Fangs rolled up three straight first downs and pushed to the Kit-

HAPPY-JOE-LUCKY presents STICKLERS!

STUCK FOR MONEY? DO A

Stickler!

STICKLERS ARE TICKLERS and a mighty soft way to make money! Just write down a simple riddle and a two-word rhyming answer. For example: What's a ball player who gets a raise? (Answer: richer pitcher.) Note: both words must have the same number of syllables — bleak freak, jolly dolly, vinery finery. Send your Sticklers, with your name, address, college, and class, to Happy-Joe-Lucky, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Don't do drawings! We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we use in our advertising — and for hundreds that never see print. And remember — you're bound to Stickler better when you're enjoying a Lucky, because Luckies taste better. Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco is TOASTED to taste even better. Fact is, you'll say Luckies are the best-tasting cigarette you ever smoked!
