Aggie Fish Open 1956 Season Here With UH

By JOE BOYD
Assistant Sports Editor
A&M's star-studded Fish blast into 1956 gridiron action hosting the University of Houston Kittens on Kyle Field tomorrow night at 7:30, with Charles Milstead, All-American High School Quarterback getting top billing as freshman field general for the season's opening fracas.

The Fish are out to regain the Southwest Conference crown lost by 1955's frosh and apparently have the manpower to do it. Half-back Gordon LeBeouf is one of Coach Paul Bryant's most promising gridders. The 190-pound Port Neches flash stands 5-11 and won all-state recognition sparking his AAA high school team to a Texas championship.

Larry Ward is scheduled for right end starting slot. The 200-pound all-stater is 6-1 and will probably see plenty of action this year.

Bryon Caruthers will fill left end position for the Fish and Woody Rochelle is slated for left tackle duty. Caruthers is a 195 pound six-footer and Rochelle stands 6-2½ weighing 210. Right tackle Gale Oliver is another 200 pounder standing 6-2.

Bill Darwin, 215-pound 6-4 freshman, has center position nailed down and Buddy Payne gets the nod for right guard. Payne is a 5-10 190 pounder. Al Taylor, 210-5-10, will handle the left guard chore.

Henry Colewell draws right half while LeBeouf takes the left side of the backfield. Colewell is 5-10 and carries 170 pounds. Fullback Bob Yeates weighs 180 and is 5-11.

The Aggie Fish will attempt to strengthen their present lead in their series with the Kittens. Houston has taken only one game from A&M's Fish eleven. The 1952 freshmen fell to the Kittens 26-21 and bounced back in 1954 for an avenging 31-6 win. Last year's powerful Fish team nudged the Kittens 7-6 in a fumble-filled tussle on Kyle Field.

Bug-Bitten Aggies Work for Raiders

By BARRY HART
Battalion Sports Editor

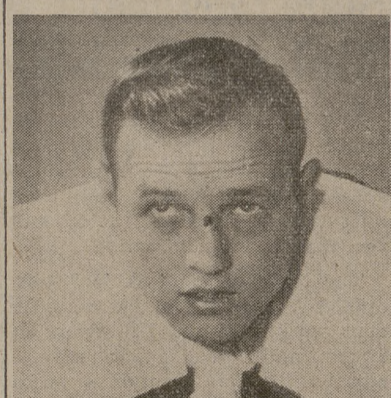

Virus flu poked its ugly head into the A&M football picture this week to add at least a half a dozen players to Trainer Smokey Harpers already long injured list.

On the recovery list from hurts in last Saturday's LSU game are Dennis Goehring, Loyd Taylor, John Tracey, John Gilbert and A. L. Simmons while John Crow, Bobby Marks, Bobby Keith and Kenneth Hall are down with the bug, with an unknown number of others sick but able to practice.

With the Texas Tech game only three days off, Coach Paul Bryant puts his Aggies through a tough workout, but stopped it in disgust after two hours and sent the squad in after some hard wind sprints. "We're not getting anything done out there," commented Coach Paul Bryant. "We don't do anything sharp—we're not hitting anybody."

"We don't have any tough guys, nobody mean. We proved that at LSU. We were catching it there at the last and taking it instead of throwing it back at them."

Dee Powell

Dee Powell, who blocked a Tiger punt attempt for a safety, has passed two-year starting center Lloyd Hale for the number-one ball-snapping spot.

"Powell is the highlight of everything out there," approved Bryant. "He played real well against LSU. He's the only one who hits people. He'll start Saturday."

Tigers Scream 'Foul Play' In 9-6 Aggie Win

By The Associated Press
LSU backfield coach George Terry said Monday that movies showed the Aggies had an ineligible receiver downfield on its touchdown play in A&M's 9-6 win over the Tigers.

"The movies clearly show that Ken Beck, No. 72, came down and cut into the territory of the pass receiver," said Terry. "I guess that happens about one hundred times during a football season. Officials can't see everything. It was simply our misfortune to have it happen to us on such a key play."

At A&M Coach Bear Bryant, when told of Terry's comments, said:

"I'm really not interested in what their movies show. It wouldn't surprise me if you found six or eight men downfield because during that first period, our players had to guess at what signal was called. It was impossible to hear for the noise of the LSU cheering section. And I didn't notice anyone making an effort to prevail on the crowd to be quiet when we had the ball. If we were going to re-refer the game our movies showed several plays that could be pointed out. Frankly, we're trying to get ready for Texas Tech this week. That's our only interest."

A&M's BOBBY CONRAD (40)—gathers in Roddy Osborne's 13-yard pass to set up the Aggies' only touchdown against LSU. Conrad was knocked out of bounds and fumbled the ball, but the catch was allowed.
