

New Aggie Weider Holds Own Ideas

By JOE BOYD
Assistant Sports Editor

Russell Karl von Weider is not an ordinary coach! The new Aggie fencing and wrestling mentor has his own ideas about a lot of things—and gets convincing results.

A quiet, soft-spoken man who has never fenced as an amateur, Weider comes to Aggieland from Grove City College in Pennsylvania where he guided his swimming team to a Penn-Ohio championship.

Early in his professional fencing career Weider amazed the world of sports and paved the road for his future coaching by defeating Europe's leading swordsman, Leonardo Terrone. This feat attracted the attention of world champion Paues Genevieve who imparted many of the fundamentals for Weider's present teaching techniques.

A two-year stint in the United States Army and a coaching position at Western Reserve College took up all of Weider's time before Grove City. At the Cleveland, Ohio school he headed up the boxing, fencing, and wrestling programs.

Weider was not a physical education major at all-male Kenyon College, Ohio. Nor did the competitive-minded coach participate in intercollegiate sports!

Ironically, Weider received a Liberal Arts education and was a professional in every sport he cared for by the time he reached college age. The short, well-built athlete turned his talents to boxing, fencing, swimming, diving, and wrestling.

The secret of Weider's uncanny success lies in his unyielding devotion to all competitive sports. Since early childhood he has conditioned himself and trained for the ring, the pool, or the wrestling mat. "I've devoted my entire life to studying, teaching, and practicing competitive sports," Weider asserted.

Weider is pleased with his position at A&M. "I've never seen such a friendly college," said the new grappling coach. "I think this fine attitude will help greatly in turning out good teams." Weider believes the spirit of the individual contributes more to the success of fencing and wrestling than anything else.

"STRIKE! Once again the keglers of Bryan-College Station are beginning a new season of bowling. Interest is at an all-time high with eight sanctioned leagues bowling on the Memorial Student Center and Bryan Air Force Base Alleys.

The A&M Bowling Committee, sponsored by the Memorial Student Center, begins its official pinfall next Monday night at 7:15. Marvin Butler, Faculty sponsor, suggests that any Aggie wishing to bowl in this league contact either John Redden or himself at the MSC.

Things shape up this way in the All-Star League which bowls on Wednesday nights:

Sixty Divers Vie for Spots In Intramurals

Diving held sway in the intramural program last night on the campus. The men entering the preliminaries had to prove themselves proficient in two required dives and three optional dives. Forty seven men were able to do this successfully and get down to business.

The two required dives were a front and back dive in any position, tuck, pike, or layout. Judging the men were Coach Mamaliga and some members of his varsity crew of divers. He likes to do this so that he can pick up some of the talent displayed for his varsity team. About a half of his varsity divers came to him via this outlet.

In class A first place was grabbed by Arab Kloury of D Field Artillery with a score of 136.2. Second place belongs to D. A. Boyd of Leggett Hall, who scored 112.6 total points. Third position went to J. R. Harris of Sqdn. 17 with 111.4 points. T. L. Martin of Sqdn. 13 took fourth with 105.3 points. Fifth belongs to J. B. Roland of A Quarter Master who gathered 102.6 points.

Class B qualifiers were B. J. Johnson of Sqdn. 12 whose 112.75 points put him in first place, Houston Floyd of Puryear Hall with 106.7 points, H. V. Hooks of A Field Artillery with 95.9 points, J. Cowan of Sqdn. 17 with 94.0 points, and W. W. Finch of Sqdn. 24 who got 93.8 points.

INTRAMURAL DIVING—finds H. F. Gorel, Squadron 20, upside-down in his execution of a back dive in the layout position. 60 divers competed in three flights Tuesday night until almost midnight.

J. Paul Sheedy* Was A Lone Wolf Till Wildroot Cream-Oil Gave Him Confidence

"I'm starved for affection", wailed Sheedy, "but the girls think I'm just a cur. Whenever I paws to talk to one she makes tracks for the tall timber and hides." Poor old Sheedy felt so lousy he wanted to pack up and flea. "Don't be such a shaggy dog", said his Den Mother. "Get yourself some Wildroot Cream-Oil and spruce up." Now J. Paul's the most popular wolf in the forest, because his hair looks healthy and handsome, the way Nature intended... neat but not greasy! Try Wildroot Cream-Oil yourself, in the bottle or handy tube. You'll soon be a howling success with the girls.
