Two Records Fall In 'Mural Swim

By DON BISETT
 Intramural Writer

Two records were broken and one tied as B Engineers and D Infantry tied for the class A and C swimming title and Sqdn. 21 took the class B title last night.

In class A the old record fell in the 400 foot relay to the strong B Engineer team composed of C. C. Barcus, J. G. McCoy, G. L. King, and G. D. Frese, Nick Kuich of class A and representing Law Hall tied the old record in the 300 foot free style while taking down first place in that event, his time 58.6.

The class B record to fall was to the man who had set it only a few days ago. Dollard of Sqdn. 15 knocked 1.8 seconds off his old time of 45.6 by swimming the 200 foot breaststroke in 43.8 seconds.

The Pierce Dictation Machine should have been listed rather than the Dictaphone as shown in the Davis Office Equipment ad in Tuesday's Battalion. (Oct. 9, 1956)

Enos Looks Ahead

NEW YORK (AP)—With 19 seasons of baseball, plus three years in the service, behind him, 40-year-old Enos Slaughter of the New York Yankees is looking into the future.

"I'll bet all my stuff hasn't been together in 15 years," says Slaughter. "There's some in St. Louis some in Belleville, Ill., some at my mother's place in North Carolina and some in Kansas City."

DALLAS, (AP)—Southern Methodist's Mustangs Wednesday worked on the timing of their offensive plays, and drilled diligently on defense plans designed to halt Duke's potent split-T attack.

FAYETTEVILLE, (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks are "physically ready" for their clash with Baylor here Saturday, Coach Jack Mitchell said Wednesday.

The Razorbacks worked today on backfield timing. They put in considerable time on pass offense and pass defense and also got in some line play assignment drill, both defensive and offensive. Mitchell scrimmaged the top units.

WACO, (AP)—Coach Sam Boyd continued to work his Baylor squad mostly on offense yesterday as he directed the Bears through a two-hour work-out with very little contact scrimmage.

"One of these days I'll build a place in North Carolina on the farm I own and put all my stuff there."
