Burchard Goes To ACEJ Meet In Chicago

Donald D. Burchard, head of the Journalism Department, returned Tuesday from Chicago where he attended the fall meeting of the American Council on Education for Journalism, of which he is a member. ACEJ is the highest ranking accreditation organization for journalism in the nation. A team visited the A&M Journalism Department last year and accredited it in two sequences, Community Journalism and Agricultural Journalism. Final plans were laid at the meeting for accreditation teams to visit 19 schools in the nation and examine their journalism programs. The Council plans to visit all the schools in the nation that have requested to be visited by the April meeting of the Council. If this is accomplished they will have visited 59 schools in the past year. ACEJ appointed a committee to appraise the system of accreditation by sequences and determine whether it should be used in the future. A report on findings will be made at the April meeting.

CHS Bonfire Touched Off Tonight at 6:30

A week of intensive work will be climaxed tonight at 6:30 when the annual A&M Consolidated High School Homecoming Bonfire burns.

Built around a center pole over 40 feet tall, the pile was constructed entirely by students working after school with borrowed equipment and donated wood.

The entire operation was organized and coordinated by the CHS yell leaders Ann Hite, Lucy Rogers, Jeanette Vance and Carolyn Wilson. Miss Hite is head yell leader.

At 6:45 tonight, the yell leaders will lead a parade with the Consolidated Band from the school's music room to the bonfire site. There football co-captains Garland Andrews and Bill Hall will light the fire and the annual homecoming activities will officially begin.

After the lighting, a yell practice will be held. The gathering will be over on top for the A&M Consolidated Jr. High football game with Huntsville at 7:30 on Tiger Field.

Several hundred invitations have been mailed to former students by the yell leaders who are sponsoring the two-day celebration with the cooperation of the student council and the senior class.

The 1956 Homecoming Queen will be crowned between halves of the football game with Navasota tomorrow night and a dance will follow the game.

Facilities Give Girl Scout Site Allocations

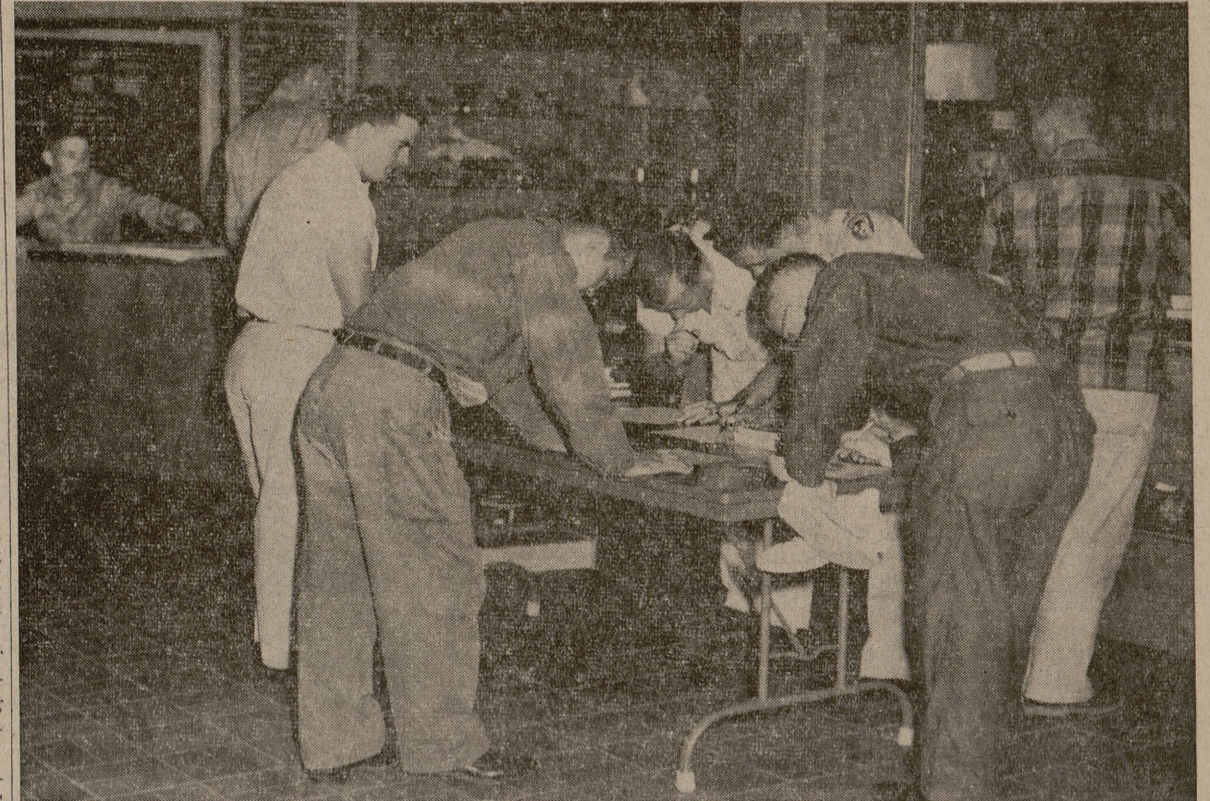

The College Station Youth Facilities Council voted yesterday to ask for a total of $1,000 from the 1956 College Station Community Chest with half ear-marked for the Girl Scouts and the lighted softball diamond at Lincoln School.

Ten of the twelve committee members were present at the meeting held yesterday in city hall. Projects from all civic youth groups were discussed by the group and a general request was agreed upon instead of particular items.

Projects submitted include a city park, a girl scout camp, a site for boy scout buildings, a city swimming pool, a colored swimming pool and improvement of the Negro softball diamond lighting.

The Council voted to give the Bryan-College Station Area Girl Scout Council $250 to improve a new camp site to be purchased by the scout group. Another $250 was suggested for use in improving the lights at the Negro softball diamond, which the Council provided last year.

Present at the meeting were Bob Cherry, president; Mrs. R. A. Patterson, secretary-treasurer; and Les Richardson, Dick Hervey, Sid Loveless, Ran Boswell, Loyd Keel, Luther Jones, W. A. Tarrow and Mike Kremitsky.

Kansas City Bound

Judging Teams Hit the Road

Members of the senior Livestock, Meats and Wool Judging Teams with their respective coaches left the campus yesterday morning headed for competition in the American Royal at Kansas City Tuesday morning.

Many of this year's Senior Teams are composed of boys who "won their spurs" on the junior teams last fall, and many of the coaches are hoping that this year will be a rich one for the A&M Teams.

These trips are sponsored by the Saddle and Siroin Club with the cooperation of the Animal Husbandry Department. Boys who work out for these teams spend long hours practicing their skills and the competition within the teams is keen.

Teams members will travel from College Station to Oklahoma City for practice sessions tomorrow and Friday. They will travel on to Kansas City and are due to arrive there sometime Saturday. They will compete with teams from over the United States representing about 20 colleges and universities in the American Royal Competition.

Members of the teams making the trip, hometown and their coaches are as follows:

Senior Wool Judging Team—Dr. T. M. Watkins, coach; Glenn R. Chandler, Sanderson; James A. McMullan, Jr., Ozona; Cecil M. Skaggs, Houston and Joe A. Nessmith, alternate from Van Horn.

Lady Blacksmith Needed

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—If you're a good stout girl and don't mind dirt and perhaps an occasional kick, there's a pretty good job open for you—as a lady blacksmith. W. E. Combs, who is 76 and one of the few horseshoers left in Florida, wants to retire but can't find anyone to take over his quite active business. Combs figures more women than men ride horses nowadays so "I'm thinking if some good stout girl got interested in it I'd learn her to fit shoes." He says he once thought he had a good prospect but, it turned out, "she weighed only 80 pounds. Wouldn't do."

Drivers' Training To Begin Monday

The A&M Engineering Extension Service has developed a new driver training course for personnel of the motor transport industry.

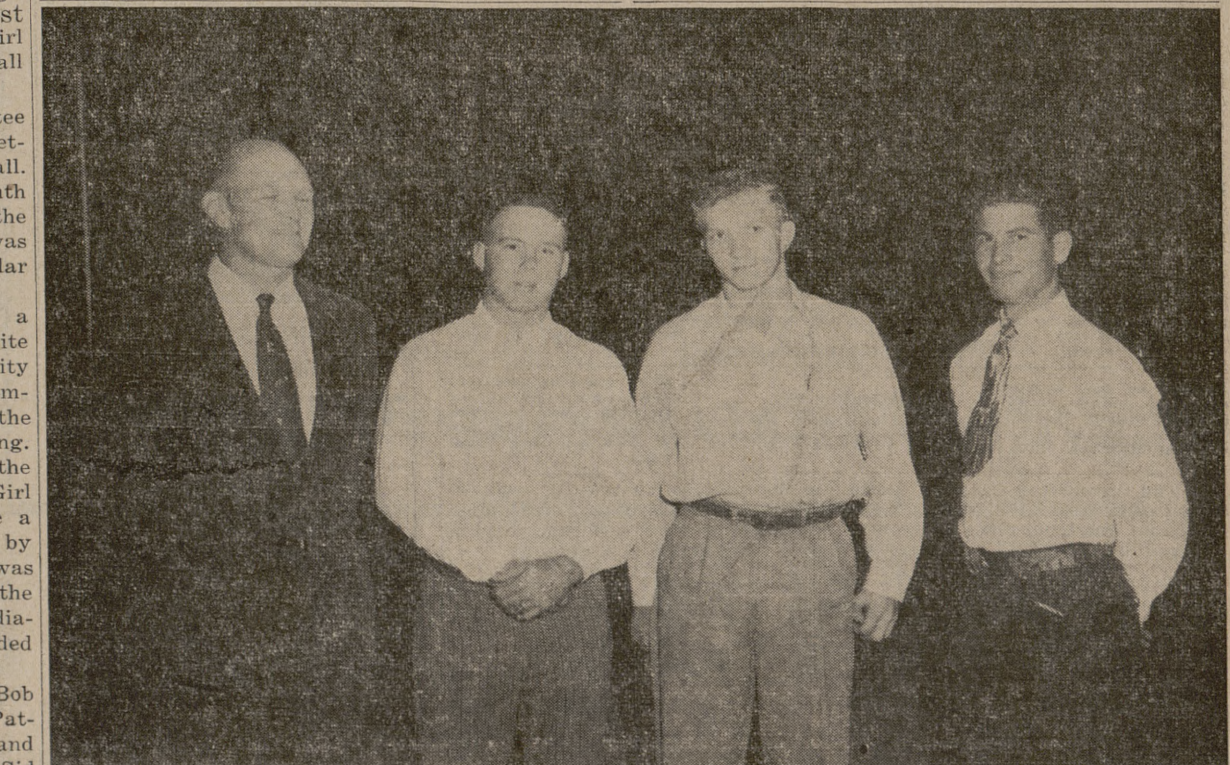

The course will be conducted on the campus Monday through Friday of next week. It is designed to help both large and small motor companies select and train their own drivers, according to A. L. Kramer, the TEES motor fleet training specialist.

The program will offer instruction on such topics as defensive driving, special driving techniques, psycho-physical testing, accident prevention, driver maintenance, setting driver standards, braking tests, uniform traffic code and measurable attitude factors.

Selected instructors, with wide backgrounds of practical experience and special study, will guide students through every phase of driver training, giving demonstrations of actual training techniques that can be put to immediate use in their own companies.

"Students will get plenty of active participation during the driving tests," Kramer said.

Modern equipment for demonstrations, and for the actual tests will be furnished by major truck companies.
