

Dr. Harrington Relates Travels To Study Club

CAMPUS STUDY CLUB members really felt they had taken a trip around the globe after listening to an illustrated talk by Dr. M. T. Harrington, Chancellor of A&M System at Tuesday's first regular meeting.

Dr. Harrington told the purpose of his trips, the places visited, and the length of time spent in each place. He also told of homes he visited in Honolulu, Tokyo, and Hongkong, and gave news of people from A&M who are in Pakistan. Numerous colored slides of places of interest ranging from pineapple harvesting in Hawaii to ancient ruins of Rome and castles in Scotland.

Two officers were elected during the business meeting. Mrs. R. B. Alexander, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Silvio Navarro, treasurer, will assume the new duties.

New members admitted into the club are Mesdame Joe Bruce, R. L. Anderson, Mont Whitson, Lewis C. Westbrook, A. M. Sorenson, Bob Alexander, C. Prewit, Clarence Moore, and Jarrell D. Gray.

Social Whirl

ARCHITECTURAL WIVES SOCIETY has called off the social for Friday night and meet instead on Oct. 24 for a social meeting in the South Solarium in the YMCA at 7:30 p. m.

A bingo party for Tuesday at 8 p. m. is slated by the DAMES CLUB. Each member is asked to bring a "white elephant" gift for prizes. Hostesses for the evening will be Elaine Wardlaw and Pat Van Hula.

AGGIE BAND WIVES CLUB held a copperware party Wednesday night at which Louise Hair demonstrated the utensils. Carol Speer was hostess for the meeting held in the YMCA South Solarium. Attending were band wives and friends. The next scheduled meeting will be the first Tuesday in November.

AGGIE WIVES BRIDGE CLUB will meet tonight at 7:30 for the weekly card playing in the MSC.

INDUSTRIAL ENGINEERING WIVES Club elected temporary officers to preside until the Oct. 30 election. Janet Lancaster is serving as temporary president and Patricia Locke is temporary secretary. Eighteen members were present at this week's meeting. The group meets Oct. 30 at 7:30 in Room 2C of the MSC.

Picnic for BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION WIVES Club will be held Tuesday at 6 p. m. at Hensel Park. Couples are asked to bring their own lunches. The club will furnish cokes, coffee and cookies.

Faculty members of the Business Administration Department and their families as well as business majors and their families are invited.
